

Death anniversary

CITY DESK

Today is the fourth death anniversary of Hasina Banu, wife of late Alhaj Ahmed Yunus, former joint-secretary of Bangladesh Agriculture Development Corporation and founder president of Rajshahi Zila Samity.

Cocktail blasts

party-backed student body said the faction, which was unlikely to be elected in this council, blasted the bombs.
BCL President HM Badiuzzaman Shohag and General Secretary Siddiqui Nazmul Alam were holding a meeting with Religious Affairs Minister Motiur Rahman at the circuit house where three to four cocktails went off around 10:15pm. After they moved to the nearby gymnasium, 15-20 cocktails were exploded there, about 20 minutes later.

ASF honoured a total of 29 organisations and individuals for their contribution to the development of the organisation. BNWLA, Brac, Bangladesh Legal Aid Services Trust, Prothom Alo and Ain o Salish Kendra were among the organisations honoured, while Mahfuz Anam, editor and publisher of The Daily Star; Shamanto Lal Sen, chief national coordinator of Dhaka Medical College Hospital's burn and plastic surgery unit, and Salma Ali were among the individuals honoured.

CPB, BSD condemn law

Above all, by making false and confusing comments about the justice of executed war criminal Quader Mollah, the minister has joined the chorus of those quarters, it said.
The parties alleged that the Awami League-led government had talked about bringing Jamaat-Shibir to justice to achieve legitimacy after coming to power through a voterless election on January 5.
It is being proven that the promise of trying the war criminals and bringing Jamaat to justice were meant to "deceive" people, they added.

her mother, Sumon began attacking her as well.
The locals surrounded the house and called the police. When police arrived at the spot, Sumon held his eight-year-old son Imon hostage.
However, police managed to rescue Imon and arrest Sumon.
The bodies were sent for autopsies.

the accused were not included in the BCL committee. He added that Saleh and his supporters had been using the name of the organisation for their own interest.
But some of the students, on condition of anonymity, said the accused were involved in the politics of the college unit of BCL.
Room no. 353 of Kabi Nazrul Hall was used as Saleh's torture cell, they said, adding that Saleh, former organising secretary of BCL of the college unit, and his men had previous criminal records too.
He brandished his firearms at a procession protesting BNP's hartal on March 5 last year.
A number of sources said Saiful and Shakil assaulted general students for not inviting the former to a debate competition in the college auditorium on March 25.
Saiful also allegedly shot a 1st year student of the college in the leg on March 6 inside a classroom, said the sources.
Lawmaker of Comilla-6 AKM Bahauddin Bahar, also Sumu's uncle, said, "Police have been asked to arrest all accused in the case. None of the killers will be spared."
On Thursday, following a clash, Saleh and his men swooped on the residence of Shajib Chakrabarti alias Gittu at Munshelbari in Monoherpur and attacked his cousin Pritom.
Witnessing the incident from a neighbouring house, Sumu rushed to the spot to save Pritom. But one of the attackers shot Sumu in the back, leaving him critically injured.
He was immediately rushed to Comilla Medical College Hospital where the doctors pronounced him dead.
A case was filed Thursday night accusing 15 named and 25 unnamed people.

Leg pain keeps Khaleda

of her physical condition," Khaleda's press secretary Maruf Kamal Khan told The Daily Star.
He also said the doctor had advised her to take rest for 72 hours.
Khaleda instructed senior leaders to attend the food distribution programme on her behalf.
The BNP has planned a three-day food distribution programme from Friday marking the death anniversary of Zia, also husband of Khaleda.
Talking to reporters after distributing food at the city's Kuril, Fakhru'l yesterday said there was no alternative to holding a fresh national election under a non-party administration to resolve the political crisis.
BNP standing committee members ASM Hannan Shah, Mirza Abbas, Rafiqul Islam Miah and Nazrul Islam Khan, Khaleda's adviser Abdul Awal Mintoo also distributed food separately at different parts of the capital.
POLICE IN SHAFIQ REHMAN'S HOUSE
Meanwhile, police yesterday took position inside senior journalist Shafiq Rehman's house compound in the capital for around seven hours on the pretext of ensuring his security.
"Around 30 police members including four females entered my residence around 8:00am. When asked, an official said they came only to ensure my security as many people might gather on the occasion of food distribution by Khaleda Zia in front of my residence," Rehman told The Daily Star.
"But when I informed a police officer that Khaleda Zia was not coming here due to her illness, he [the cop] said they came to my house on the instructions of the higher authority." The police personnel left the residence around 3:00pm, he added.

Khasis fearing further

told The Daily Star.
More than 650 members reside on Nahar Punjee-1 and Nahar Punjee-2, and the indigenous community solely lives on betel leaf cultivation.
Ferly Surong, headman (or montri) of neighbouring Nahar Punjee-2, said their males also were guarding the homes and betel gardens too.
The adivasis alleged that the tea garden management had lured the Bangalee attackers with giving them some of the punjee land if they could be evicted.
The tea garden manager, Pijush Bhattacharya, however, refuted the allegations. He claimed that the land belonged to them; rather the indigenous people had grabbed it. Pijush said the "Khasi people attacked them" when they went to "recover their land" on Friday.
Sanjeeb Drong, general secretary of Bangladesh Adivasi Forum, yesterday demanded arrest of the people involved in Friday's attack. He said Khasi people had not got justice about the matter for a long time. The land belongs to them as per ILO Convention-107, he told The Daily Star.
Kamrul Hasan, deputy commissioner of Moulvibazar, confirmed that it was khas land but said he did not know whether it belonged to the district administration or forest department.

Increased budget

Bangladesh has achieved many successes in the health sector, particularly in preventive healthcare and communicable diseases but challenges still remain, he added.
As Bangladesh moves up the economic scale, the health sector challenge also shifts towards curative healthcare and non-communicable diseases, he said.
Health professionals, health managers, patients and also social groups participated in the programme.
