At least four people were killed, 35 injured and over 700 houses damaged as nor'westers lashed

STAR COUNTRY DESK

Chapainawabganj, Faridpur and Gaibandha districts yesterday and the day before. Two people were killed and 10 others injured during storm in Shibganj and Gomostapur upazilas in Chapainawabganj yesterday morning, reports our correspondent. The deceased are Kawsar Ali, 12, son of Mosarraf Hossain of Chamatola village and Nioti Rani Pramanik, 22, daughter of Anil Chandra Pramanik of Ranibari-Chandpur village in Shibganj upazila.

Of the injured, four were admitted to Rajshahi Medical College and Hospital in critical condition.

In Shibganj, the storm lashed Chakkirti, Binodpur and Durlovpur unions, killing two people and injuring two others around 7:00am, said locals.

A tree collapsed on Kawsar Ali, leaving him dead on the spot when he was going to a mango orchard near his house for collecting the fruits, said Mohbul Hossain, chairman of Binodpur union parishad.

Nioti Rani was killed by lightning while she was returning home from a mango orchard at Ranibari-Chandpur village during the storm, said Sarwar-e-Alam, chairman of Chakkirti UP.

Two killed collapses on dock workers

OUR CORRESPONDENT,

Two dock workers were killed as a crane suddenly collapsed and fell on them in Pashur channel of the sea port in Mongla upazila yesterday morning.

The deceased were identified as tally clerk Zakir Hossain, 36, and foreman Matin, 52, both residents of the upazila. Mongla Port sources said, Zakir and Matin were injured when a ceiling of the crane along with goods suddenly collapsed and fell on them while they were unloading machineries from Hong Kong ship MV Hanjing at Harbaria in the channel at about 9:00am.

Critically injured, the two workers were rushed to Mongla Upazila Health Complex where the on-duty doctors declared them dead.

A four-member committee was formed to probe the incident, said Commodore HR Bhuiyan, chairman of Mongla Port Authority.

The ship berthed at Harbaria, 13 kilometres away from Mongla port, in the Pashur River for unloading goods on June 8. Around a dozen workers were engaged, he said.

The stevedores working there did not informed the authority about the incident till 11:00am, he alleged.

Outlaw held

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Pabna

Police arrested a top outlaw from a house in Ashulia area of Savar early yesterday.

The arrestee is Md Rashed Hossain, 35, of Bilshalangi village in Santhia upazila and regional leader of Purbo Banglar Communist Party (Red flag faction).

Abducted farmer found killed, another rescued

STAR COUNTRY DESK

An abducted farmer was killed in Jhenidah while another of Mymensingh was rescued from Jamalpur yesterday and the day before.

Police recovered the body of the farmer from a field at Defolbaria village in Jhenidah Sadar upazila yesterday, reports our correspondent.

The deceased was identified as Yunus Ali, 40, son of Taj Uddin of Baniakanadar village under the upazila.

Police quoting family sources said, Yunus Ali was abducted on Sunday. Yunus was hacked to death with sharp weapons, police said but they could not immediately tell the reason behind the killing.

Our correspondent in Jamalpur reported that police rescued a man, abducted from Maisakhali Bazar under Pagla upazila of Mymensingh district over past enmity on Monday, from beside a bridge on Jamalpur-Tangail road at Karagram village in Sarishabari upazila on Tuesday night. The victim, Shahjahan Miah, 50, son of late Elahi Newaj of Datannapara village under Pagla upazila, is a farmer and also a small trader. A gang picked up Shahjahan from a market place in the area at around

7:30pm on the day. After the incident, the victim's family lodged a diary with Pagla police station. However, locals found

Shahjahan lying with his two legs tied up with a locked chain and groaning beside the bridge around 8:30pm and informed the police.

Turtle smuggler jailed only for 15 days

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Benapole, Jessore

Police yesterday arrested a man on charge of trying to smuggle out 100 live turtles from the district on Tuesday.

The arrestee Ashraful Alam, 34, son of Motiur Rahman was later sentenced to 15 days' imprisonment by the Upazila Nirbahi Officer of Jhikorgachha.

Mosharraf Hosain, officer in-charge of Jhikorgacha Police Station, said on a tipoff, police waylaid a Jessorebound private car in Nangrali area of the upazila and held Ashraful along with the turtles. At night, the UNO released the recovered turtles in the Kobadak River.

Away in Dinajpur, Border Guard Bangladesh (BGB) members in separate drives seized about 32kg dried turtle in Birampur upazila on Tuesday morning, reports our correspondent. Tipped off, a BGB team of Phulbari 40 Battalion raided Begumpur village of the upazila around 6:00am and seized the turtles in an abandoned condition as the smugglers managed to flee the spot, sensing the presence of BGB members.

then walked to Farmgate. Around 3:30pm, he was still waiting there for a vehicle to go home.

The traffic jam on Kazi Nazrul Islam Avenue caused gridlock on Malibagh, Moghbazar, Shantinagar, Mohakhali, Banani and Mirpur roads.

"It took more than an hour to come to Bangla bus and walked to my office at Farmgate around 2:45pm," said Hossain, a private service holder.

Even traffic sergeants were at their wits' end.

Talking to The Daily Star, they spoke in exasperation of how Jubo League activists took position right on the streets, causing congestion.

"As thousands are occupying the streets with banners, vehicles have slowed down to a crawl," said a traffic sergeant wishing not to be named.

Meanwhile, the Jubo League offered apology for the public sufferings but said it had to organise the gathering to welcome the Awami League party chief after her "successful China visit".

"The prime minister has paved the path for economic freedom of the country through her China visit. So we organised the gathering to congratulate her on this achievement," Jubo League chairman Omar Faroque Chowdhury told The Daily

During Sheikh Hasina's visit, Bangladesh and China signed six deals, including one for building a large power plant in Patuakhali, and two exchanges of letters (EoLs) to enhance cooperation in sectors like trade and investment and climate change.

HT Imam, political adviser to the prime minister, described the PM's China visit as hundred percent successful.

"Relations between the two countries will reach new heights," he said, adding that the Chinese government had accepted all the issues raised by Hasina.

PM's Media Adviser Iqbal Sobhan Chowdhury told reporters at the airport that China had assured Hasina's government of all kinds of support for socio-economic development in the country and congratulated her on assuming office as premier However, the PM's for the second consecutive numerous diplomatic time through the January 5 national election.
