What are we ...

Not just a school, a home for tomorrow's victors.

What do we bring for you ...

A curriculum that

- blends the best of both, the east and the west.
- educates our children in English BUT does not make them forget their roots and culture.
- incorporates everyday values into learning.
- has study material and activities to suit individual needs.
- has project ideas and plans for students of all ages and classes to enhance interest and better learning of topics in enjoyable and motivational ways.
- has plenty of group work activities.
