Another charge links Qaisar to a rape that took place in mid-August, 1971 at an army camp at Jagadishpur High School in Madhabpur.

Rana said the rape victim narrated how Qaisar handed her over to the army after capture. The rape victim gave birth to a war baby who also testified before the tribunal.

The three-member tribunal led by Justice Obaidul Hassan adjourned the proceeding till today. Qaisar, who is now on bail on health grounds, always denied the allegations.

TRIBUNAL-1

The International Crimes Tribunal-1 yesterday asked prosecutor Abul Kalam Azad to submit the formal charges against fugitive war crimes suspect Syed Md Hassan Ali on August 24 after he failed to do so as per an earlier order and sought more time verbally.

Hassan faces allegations of involvement in crimes against humanity in Tarail upazila of Kishoreganj.

potentials that still remain untapped."

They underscored the need for forging greater ties between the private sectors of the two countries.

Meanwhile, protesting the Israeli barbarity, the Human Rights Forum Bangladesh accused country of violating truces.

In a statement, it said the UN was not playing a due role because the USA and other super powers did not want to take action against Israel. The forum has called upon Bangladesh and all embassies operating in Dhaka to play a stronger role to compel Israel to stop killing Palestinians.

The international community must take an initiative to find a permanent solution to the Palestine-Israel conflict and to stop such deaths, it added.

At a rally in front of the capital's Jatiya Press Club, the Bangladesh Civil Rights Society urged the people around the world to pressurise Israel so it backs away from its Zionist agenda in Palestine.

They also criticised the Arab rulers for their "shameless silence" over the Israeli butchery in Gaza, and slammed the West and the US for their "blind support" to Israel, ignoring the lives of innocents including children in Palestinians.

At the same venue, the Bangladesh Labour Party set fire to the national flag of Israel in a human chain. In a statement, the Bangladesh Christian Association said the "heinous acts" of Israel were just unacceptable.

Presently, the rate of exclusive breastfeeding (which means the infant only receives breast milk without any additional food or drink, not even water) is only 64 percent, while the rate of feeding supplementary food after six months is only 21 percent, he said.

Though Bangladesh has achieved much in reducing child and maternal mortality rates, 36 percent of children below five years are under-weight and 41 percent under-height.

As part of a massive campaign for exclusive breastfeeding, Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina will inaugurate the breastfeeding week titled "Breastfeeding: A Winning Goal for Life" at Osmani Memorial Hall today.

Hospitals and community clinics will arrange discussions and rallies across the country, and there will also be a media campaign, Nasim said.

BBF Chairperson Dr SK Roy said 207 hospitals had already been declared "baby-friendly", while the rest would be declared so gradually.

The private hospitals have also been instructed to have breastfeeding corners so lactating mothers can breastfeed them without hesitation, he said.
