

Residents of the capital have started dreading rain due to the waterlogging it creates in the city as a result of a poor drainage system and filling up of the catchment areas by influential people with impunity. Left, Pater Bagh Road in Shampur has been waterlogged with a sludge of a mix of rainwater and raw sewage for the last 15 days. Right, Dhonia Bonomola School Road in the same area has been in a similar condition for a week, forcing school students to wade through dirty water. The photos were taken yesterday.

CANCER RESEARCH, HOSPITAL SC overrules HC stay on Golam Mostofa's removal

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Supreme Court yesterday stayed for eight weeks a High Court order that halted a government decision to remove Prof SK Golam Mostofa from the post of director of National Institute of Cancer Research and Hospital (NICRH).

The health ministry on July 27 made Golam Mostofa an officer on special duty (OSD) and put Dr Md Shamiul Islam, a professor of pathology department of National Institute of Chest Diseases and Hospital, in the post of director of NICRH.

Following the SC order Shamiul Islam will now discharge duties as director of NICRH, Assistant Attorney General Sheikh Saifuzzaman told The Daily Star.

EXTORTION CASE
SC stays Tarique's personal secy
Apu's bail
STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Supreme Court yesterday stayed for four weeks a High Court order that granted bail to Mia Nur Uddin Apu, personal secretary to BNP Vice-Chairman Tarique Rahman, in an extortion case.

The SC passed the order after the government filed a petition seeking a stay on the HC order.

The HC on Monday had granted six months' bail to Apu in the extortion case following a bail petition filed by the accused.

Amin Ahmed, proprietor of Al Amin Construction Company Ltd, filed the extortion case against Tarique Rahman and Apu on charges of extorting over Tk 1 crore from him on December 30, 2006. Tarique, who is now in London, secured bail from
