at The Daily Star, and Sohel Ahmed, manager at Robi, Chittagong region, also spoke.

Prof Anwarul said that to face challenges thrown by the competitive world, students need English skills as it is the common means of communication with the rest of the world.

Earlier, a cultural programme featuring group and solo renditions, and dance performances by students of the host school was held.

Tuba Group workers

The workers announced that they will demonstrate before the labour ministry on September 7, if their demands are not met by then.

About 1,600 workers of Tuba factories have been demonstrating since July 28 demanding arrears and Eid bonus. Later, BGMEA paid their due salary, but not the bonus.

Since the fatal fire at Tazreen Fashions, a unit of Tuba, which killed about 112 people, eight units have been closed.

Delwar, who was arrested in a case in connection with the fire, was given bail on August 5.

complainants bring allegations against "unidentified persons", which makes the case, one of a "missing person", rather than a case of enforced disappearance, it added.

As a result, seeking justice for the disappeared victims is impossible at the stage of registration of the complaint itself, never mind the dream of credible investigation or prosecution, said ALRC.

outcome of that plan."
The leftist leader also urged the government to form a national committee for prosecution of the "political crime", apart from execution of the killers of the father of the nation.

Selim said it would be a true revenge only if the country was run in the spirit of the liberation war.

The discussion on the 1975 and 2004 August massacres was organised by Moni Singh-Farhad Memorial Trust in Shahid Tajul Auditorium.

President of the trust Shekhar Dutta chaired the programme, while poet Nirmalendu Goon recited poetry written by himself.

Former general secretary of Dhaka University Central Students' Union (Ducus) Mahbub Zaman, also a member of the trust's board, spoke among others.

Wearing masks, leaders of Bangladesh Nagorik Odhikar Forum form a human chain in front of Jatiya Press Club in the capital yesterday demanding cancellation of the National Broadcast Policy which, what they say, goes against right to the freedom of speech.

The Society for the Popularisation of Science, Bangladesh (SPSB) organised the programme with the assistance of Bangladesh Freedom Foundation for the second time this year. First Security Islami Bank Ltd (FSIBL) has sponsored the festival.

Around 1,000 students from 300 educational institutions of the country are taking part in the congress, unveiling 163 science projects, 111 science papers, and 76 science posters.

Prof Jamilur Reza Choudhury, vice chancellor of the University of Asia Pacific, who inaugurated the programme, said the young science learners would be more interested in science education and able to think innovatively by using their experimental knowledge.

The noted academician discussed the contributions of some Bangladeshi scientists in the development of technology and encouraged the students to be engaged more in scientific activities. He expressed satisfaction over the rekindled interest of students in science.

M Sabur Khan, chairman of Daffodil International University's board of trustees, urged the students to take science education, and called upon entrepreneurs to patronise scientists for development of businesses.

The science museum director general, Humayun Kabir Khan, chaired the function, while FSIBL managing director AAM Zakaria and SPSB Vice-President Munir Hasan spoke.

On information from them, police picked Sonya up from her residence on the seventh floor of the eight-storey building.

Yesterday, Sonya pushed her from behind against the wall for breaking a glass, Sohagi told reporters at the hospital.

Later, Sonya drove her away from her house, said Kalabagan police Sub-inspector Moniruzzaman.

Sonya, however, denied the allegations, claiming that Sohagi fell on a shattered glass, said Officer-in-Charge Mohammad Iqbal, quoting the detainee.

and called upon its members to take full advantage of it.

Earlier, on August 27, he held talks with the top executives of TURK EXIM Bank in Ankara and discussed in detail the ways to utilise the $300 million annual Line of Credit, which would be utilised by private ventures in Bangladesh.

He emphasised that the credit could be used for infrastructure projects in Bangladesh as well as for financing Turkish exports to Bangladesh. He also requested the EXIM Bank to reduce the rate of interest on the credit line.

TURK EXIM Bank officials concurred with Alam, and informed that they would send a high-level delegation to Bangladesh in October to discuss further and find the means for early utilisation of the credit line.

Meanwhile, the handover ceremony that took place on Thursday at the Presidential Palace in Ankara, Recep Tayyip Erdoğan took over the charge of the presidency of Turkey from outgoing president Abdullah Gul.

The former prime minister of Turkey, Erdoğan, was elected president in the first-ever popular presidential vote held on August 10. The ceremony was witnessed by dignitaries from more than 90 countries.

Obituary
