Engage in politics of sacrifice, not of indulgence

PM tells BCL at Suhrawardy rally

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina yesterday asked Bangladesh Chhatra League leadership and activists to get involved in the politics of sacrifice and nation building instead of the politics of indulgence.

Those who would run after money and wealth would die out in politics as in the past, she said, addressing the student body in the capital's Suhrawardy Udyan.

"So, you will have to engage in politics to serve the nation inspired by the ideology of Bangabandhu. What I get is not the big thing but what I can give to the nation is," she said.

The Awami League chief said those who would give priority to personal needs could not give anything to the nation.

BCL President HM Badiuzzaman Shohag chaired the rally, which the student body organised in memory of Father of the Nation Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman and Fazilatunnesa Mujib.

60pc of brick kilns eco-unfriendly

JS body asks for punishment of owners

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A parliamentary body yesterday asked the forest and environment ministry to take punitive action against the owners who have failed to transform their brick factories through the use of environment-friendly zig-zag technology and are consequently contributing to pollution.

The parliamentary standing committee on forest and environment also asked the ministry to amend the environment court law, keeping the provision of filing an appeal against its order.

The Department of Environment (DoE) told the committee that around 40 percent of brick fields have been upgraded within the deadline of July in line with the government directives.

"The committee therefore asked... ministry officials to issue notices to all deputy commissioners to take action against the rest of the brick field owners who have defaulted," Hasan Mahmud, chief of the committee, told reporters after the meeting at the Jatiya Sangsad Bhaban.

There are an estimated seven to eight thousand brick fields in the country, including 4,500 around the densely populated Dhaka city, causing grave concern of environmental hazards.

The brick factories have long been identified as a major source of air pollution, especially those still using outdated technology. Unfortunately, little was done in the past to eliminate or reduce the extent of pollution caused by these industrial units.

Living around brick fields may cause certain diseases induced by polluted air. These factories also cause the loss of soil fertility and damage crops.

In 2007, the DoE took an initiative to modernise the brick kilns by making mandatory the use of technologies less hostile to the environment by 2010.

The department at that time also decided not to renew the environmental clearance certificates to the brick kilns using old, conventional methods of production after 2010.

DoE made it mandatory to upgrade all brick kilns,

CONTEMPT OF INT'L CRIMES TRIBUNAL PROCEEDINGS Prosecution misses hearing again

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

None from the 19-member prosecution team turned up at the International Crimes Tribunal-1 yesterday to attend the scheduled hearing of a contempt of court allegation that the prosecutors themselves have brought against a Bangla daily for questioning the state lawyers' competence.

"No prosecutor is present... It's unfortunate and unexpected," said the tribunal chairman, Justice M Enayetur Rahim, at the beginning of yesterday's proceedings at 2:00pm.

Prosecutor Mohammad Ali filed the contempt petition against a reporter, the editor, and the publisher of the Kaler Kantha for publishing a report headlined "Odkokho prosecution kormokando druto bicar shesh korte badha" [prosecution's inefficiencies hindrance to speedy trial] on May 11.

The petitioner, Mohammad Ali, last evening told The Daily Star that he came to the prosecution office around 1:00pm. "It was not in my memory," he said, and blamed his colleagues for the absence.

"Any other prosecutor could show up in the tribunal," he said. "It is problematic that the chief prosecutor [Golam Arief Tipoo] has been old and cannot remember things." Ali also said, "He [chief prosecutor] could have handed over his responsibility to some other prosecutor for today."
