Fake medicine factories busted

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A mobile court backed by the Rapid Action Battalion yesterday seized a large quantity of spurious drugs during raids on two factories and three warehouses in the capital's Mitford and Keraniganj.

It also arrested the owner of the factories and warehouses, Mohammad Russel, 30, and directed law enforcers to lodge a case against him under the Special Powers Act.

Russel had served a

Ershad removes Ranga, Tajul from presidium

RASHIDUL HASAN and PRABIR BARUA CHOWDHURY

In a surprise move, Jatiya Party Chairman HM Ershad yesterday relieved party's presidium members Moshir Rahman Ranga and Tajul Islam Chowdhury of their posts.

Ershad, however, didn't give any reasons behind the decision.

Ranga is state minister for LGRD and Cooperatives, and Tajul is chief whip of the opposition in parliament.

Party insiders said Ranga was known to be a close aide to

RIVER TRAINING FOR PADMA BRIDGE

Sinohydro gets contract

STAR REPORT

Brushing aside the recommendations of a tender committee and opinion of a legal expert, the cabinet purchase committee yesterday approved awarding the Chinese company Sinohydro Corporation a $0.68 billion contract for the river training works of the Padma bridge project.

While submitting its bid on June 19, Sinohydro had concealed information that it was under temporary suspension by the World Bank for alleged wrongdoing.

When two co-bidders drew the attention of the government to the matter, the company claimed that its suspension would not affect the project.

Although the tender is not being funded by the World Bank, the tender rules stipulated that a bidder would become ineligible to bid for the project if it was facing temporary suspension by the bank.

Sinohydro had a powerful lobby in the tendering process. The Bangladesh Bridge Authority (BBA) and the road transport ministry sought legal opinion on whether Sinohydro's bid should be disqualified as per the bid document which stated that "a firm or an individual may be declared ineligible to be awarded a [World Bank]
