

WAR CRIMES TRIAL Three to testify for Subhan

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Changing their earlier stance, the defence of Jamaat-e-Islami leader Abdus Subhan yesterday said they would produce just three witnesses to defend their client against the charges of crimes against humanity and genocide committed in Pabna during the liberation war.

Earlier, the defence submitted a list of 20 defence witnesses, and the prosecution filed an application for limiting the number.

But, when the International Crimes Tribunal-2 was hearing the prosecution petition yesterday, Subhan's counsel Mizanul Islam said they would produce three witnesses, instead of 20, leading the prosecution to withdraw their petition.

Lawyers of war crimes accused Jamaat leaders usually submit a long list of defence witnesses--a list of over 10,000 was submitted in the case against Jamaat ameer Motiur Rahman Nizami--and on every occasion, the tribunals limit the number following the prosecution's petitions.

Meanwhile, the three-member tribunal led by Justice Obaidul Hassan rejected two defence petitions--one seeking its permission to submit some documents and the other praying to allow Subhan to place his submission in person before the court.

The tribunal also rejected a prosecution petition to change a date of the offence mentioned in the indictment order.

The court is scheduled to record the testimony of the last prosecution witness in the case today.

the petition saying that these vehicles were plying the highways without permission. Many people lost lives due to accidents caused by movement of such vehicles, added the petitioner.

On February 10 this year, the HC ordered the government to ban Nosimon, Karimon and Bhotbhoti from highways in 10 districts -- Jessore, Khulna, Jhenidah, Magura, Meherpur, Satkhira, Bagerhat, Narail, Kushtia and Chuadanga.

However, some printers of the area, seeking anonymity, claimed that they got to know about the visit two days before and therefore many printers were prepared. An employee of the Monir Press said they also learned about the visit a day before.

Asked how the minister would ensure the quality of about 33 crore textbooks for primary and secondary levels, Nahid said it is not possible to check all. But NCTB officials have regularly been monitoring each of the printing presses and will continue the work till the end, Nahid added.

the discussion at Jatiya Press Club in the capital, protesting the attack. Unidentified persons assaulted the pro-BNP teacher on Saturday.

BNP chairperson's adviser Osman Faruk said the attack was not isolated. It is another example of the government's oppression on opposition men, he said.

Former justice Abdur Rouf, acting convener of Sammillito Peshajibi Parishad Ruhul Amin Gazi, and adviser to the BNP chairperson Shawkat Mahmood also spoke.

MURDER CASE AGAINST MUFTI IZHARUL

Hearing on charge framing postponed

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Hearing on charge framing against Hefajat-e Islam nayebe-ameer Mufti Izharul Islam Chowdhury, his son and three others in a murder case has been postponed till September 24 as one of the accused was not produced before the court yesterday.

The accused, Md Ishaque, who is on bail in the case, is in jail in another case and could not be produced before the court, said additional public prosecutor Md Noman Chowdhury.

On October 7 last year, three people were killed in an explosion that took place in a madrasa run by Mufti Izharul. Following the incident, police recovered grenades and a large number of bomb making materials from the madrasa.

Witnesses said around 150 BCL men had rampaged through the venue for 25 minutes and beat up the party leaders in front of police and Rapid Action Battalion (Rab). When the law enforcers had intervened, the BCL marauders attacked them, too.

At that time, BCL men had defended their action, saying the speakers of the rally made "objectionable" remarks about the prime minister and the government.

Police later sued 65 BCL men but refused to record a case by the CPB. Of the accused, the names of five including then acting president of the district BCL Hiron Mahmud Nipu were mentioned.

Additional Deputy Commissioner of Sylhet Metropolitan Police Mohammad Rahmat Ullah admitted that there had been no arrest and no progress in the investigation.

Sub-inspector Bikash of Kotwali Police Station, the current investigator, said he received the case four or five months ago, and the probe would take some more time.

Yesterday, Santras Protirodh Mancha, a platform of general people to resist crime, formed a human chain at Sylhet Central Shaheed Minar, demanding arrest of the attackers.

issue. "It's not good for democracy when there are attempts to restrict this right."

Urging the state and the law enforcement agencies to remain alert, the NHRC chairman said, "Persons coming under a physical attack for his opinions is not acceptable, no matter what his ideology is."

Prof Mahbub suffered injuries in the right eye but no internal damage was found.

Prof Mahbub said it was hard to imagine that someone would attack a person like him who had no direct link with politics.

He said he had no idea about the identity of the attackers or their motive but the government could find the culprits.

through negotiations.

The department's students said prime accused Kawsar Ahmed Ovi of the department's 42nd batch had recently forced a student of the 43rd batch to carry water during a game, aiming to enforce initiation rituals on the freshman.

This student had complained to Ashraful of the 41st batch, leading to a hearing at the department's Chhatra Sangsad on Sunday where Kawsar was found guilty.

Witnesses said, armed with sticks and iron rods, Kawsar had led some nine or 10 BCL activists into attacking Ashraful before the new arts faculty building. The chairman did not receive his cellphone when contacted yesterday. Proctor Tapan Kumar Saha said legal action would be taken soon following proper investigation.

Admitting that he had carried out the attack, Kawsar said it was in response to Ashraful harassing his girlfriend.
