Some 60 to 70 Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) activists of Dhaka University's Shahidullah Hall unit kept the hall provost confined to his office for three and a half hours, accusing him of failing to, among others, ensure security at the hall. Prof Azizur Rahman was freed around 1:00am yesterday after Proctor Prof Amzad Ali arrived at the scene. The former could not be contacted for his cellphone was found switched off since 1:00pm yesterday.

The unit's General Secretary Khandaker Shahiduzzaman Miraj claimed that a sports utility vehicle parked before the room of Aminul Islam, the unit's president, had sped off on Saturday around 3:00am when the latter got to see it. Although unable to say who was in the vehicle or how it posed a threat to Aminul, Khandaker used the context to state that access of unidentified vehicles to the hall premises was "a major security threat" and the provost was to blame.
