Barisal judge sent into forced retirement

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The law ministry has sent judge of Speedy Trial Tribunal of Barisal AKM Ishtiaque Hossain into forced retirement for "misconduct and corruption" while discharging his duties.

Ishtiaque, former chairman of First Labour Court of Chittagong and former District and Sessions Judge of Dhaka, was sent to compulsory retirement on Thursday as per a Supreme Court decision taken in July this year, a law ministry press release said.

In that month, a law ministry high official told The Daily Star that Ishtiaque had acquitted several hundred accused without taking the offences of the corruption cases into cognisance, while he was a district judge in Khulna, which is a gross misconduct and corruption as per the Public Servant (Discipline and Appeal) 1985 Act.
