

GANGS HARASSING PASSENGERS

FROM the moment people wishing to travel outside the capital reach the bus terminals of Dhaka, they get swamped by brokers transport operators employ to fill the seats. It begins even before the rickshaws of the passengers come to a halt at the terminal. The brokers overwhelm them, and pushing and pulling is a regular phenomenon. Some brokers even grab the passengers' hands and drag them into a bus no even bothering to ask where the passengers was going. The photos speak for themselves how such harassment goes on every day. The photos were taken from Sayedabad Bus Terminal yesterday.

Photo: ANISUR RAHMAN

