Apex's Eid and Puja wardrobe

PEOPLE'S shopping experience isn't complete unless they have the perfect pair of matching shoes to go with the outfits they bought, especially if there is a big festival coming up. And as two of the biggest celebrations -- Durga Puja and Eid ul Adha -- almost overlap this year, Apex has brought an exclusive collection of shoes designed to complement every type of attire.

With inspired designs that blend both "style" and "comfort," people do not have to choose between the two during the rush of the festivities.

The smart designs and high quality shoes and sandals of brands such as Venturini and Apex will go with any kurta or panjabi the men choose to wear, not to mention the exclusive collection of shoes from these brands which will add to men's formal look.

Meanwhile for the women, Nino Rossi and Revive provide the perfect pair of fashionable and comfortable shoes and sandals that go well with both sarees and shalwar kameez sets. For a glamorous look, there is a wide range of stylish and elegant designs to select from Moochie.

A trendy collection is featured by Sprint and Sandra Rosa for the fun-loving, active youth of today. For the kids, Twinkler has a colourful collection of shoes and sandals that will also ensure proper care for their sensitive feet along with smart look.

You can check out the Apex outlets and can also visit their facebook page for regular updates. Visit their Facebook page, www.facebook.com/ApexFootwear.
