JS body to visit Tongi juvenile centre

SELF MUTILATION PROTESTING MISTREATMENT

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The parliamentary standing committee on the social welfare ministry yesterday decided to visit Tongi Juvenile Development Centre in Gazipur to investigate the alleged irregularities and mismanagement there.

The decision came a day after five juveniles slashed their arms with sharp objects at the reformatory reportedly in protest of mistreatment. The date of the visit was not known.

Speaking at a meeting of the committee at Jatiya Sangsad (JS) Bhaban, the ministry's secretary said there were some problems at the centre including widespread drug abuse by the inmates and rivalry among different groups.

In February, 20 juveniles of the same centre cut their foreheads, arms and wrists by blades protesting misbehaviour and physical abuse by the supervisor.

BMP protests

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Bangladesh Mahila Parishad (BMP) has protested the government's proposal to reduce the minimum age of girls for marriage to 16, and that of boys to 18 in the draft of the child marriage restraint act.

The organisation at a press conference at Jatiya Press Club yesterday demanded that the minimum age of girls and boys for marriage be 18 and 21 respectively as per the existing child marriage restraint act.

Ayesha Khanam, president of BMP, said, "The rate of child marriage for girls is still alarming in Bangladesh. Under such circumstances, the decision of reducing marriage of girls to 16 is harmful and suicidal." Advocate Maksuda Aktar Laily, director (legal advocacy),

BMP said, "We are astonished to see the cabinet proposal

Asked whether the two prime ministers spoke Hindi, Ali said it was not important what language they used for conversation but Modi felt comfortable in speaking Hindi.

Duta protests Nahid's

On Sunday, Nahid termed the admission test "faulty" and "unacceptable" after only two candidates had secured required marks to enrol at the DU English department. The result of the Kha unit test was published on September 23.

The university authorities intentionally set harder questions so that only a few applicants could get through, he told reporters at his secretariat office.

Such test would ruin the candidates' future, make them feel depressed and destroy the country's "acceptability" abroad, he added.

Latif Siddique faces
