

Piash Karim's wake not at Shaheed Minar

Announces family
STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Piash Karim's wake will be held at his Dhanmondi residence in the capital today at 10:00am, not on the previously announced Central Shaheed Minar premises, his cousin Iqbal Chowdhury told The Daily Star yesterday.

He said their decision came against the backdrop of some student organisations declaring to resist taking the body to Central Shaheed Minar for holding a wake alongside the Dhaka University authorities' denial of permission to the family to do so.

"We do not want to drag him into any controversy," added Iqbal.

Meanwhile a Supreme Court lawyer, Eunos Ali Akond, filed a writ petition with the High Court as public interest litigation seeking its directive on the government and DU authorities to allow holding the wake at Central Shaheed Minar.

The petition said every citizen of Bangladesh was equal in the eyes of law and was entitled to have recourse to it as per the constitution.

He told The Daily Star that the HC may hold the hearing on Sunday.

Moreover a BNP press release announced observing a countrywide day of mourning today at the "premature death", hoisting black flags at party offices, keeping the party flag half mast and wearing black badges.

In another press release, Nagorik Samaj said the permission denial was "politically motivated".

DETAINING MAN WITH MONEY 2 Ctg cops served show-cause notices

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

A Chittagong court yesterday issued show-cause notices to two policemen of Kotwali station over detaining a man with Tk57.92 lakh in the city's court building area Tuesday.

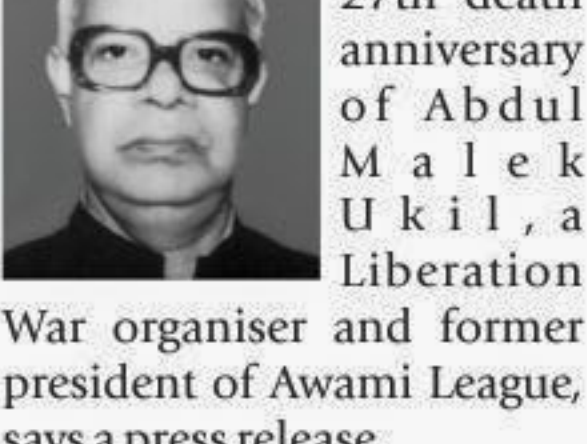

Officer-in-charge Mohiuddin Selim and Sub-inspector Md Kamruzzaman have been asked why the person was shown detained under section-54, without filing the incident as a regular case, court sources said.

They have also been asked why the mobile seized from the man was not mentioned in the seizure list. The police officials have been ordered to submit the replies to the show-cause notices within Sunday, he said.

On Tuesday, Md Elias, 32, of Kosba in Brahmanbaria, was detained in Chittagong Court Building area over suspicion. Searching him, police seized the money from a sack he was carrying.

On this occasion, a milad mahfil will be held at his village home in Noakhali.

death for the crimes he committed against humanity during the 1971 Liberation War.

Immediately afterwards, war crimes trial campaigners had expressed their frustration with many blaming the prosecution's "poor performance".

Rana Dasgupta, one of the tribunal's prosecutors, said it was due to their "limited infrastructure".

"The chief prosecutor should discuss about the limited infrastructure with the law minister. Even then, if the problem is not solved, all of you (prosecutors) unite to say in unison that you will not work," Muntassir Mamoon said.

"The government is not as much caring as it should be in dealing with the trial over wartime crimes," he said, adding that they want the "highest punishment" for war criminals.

On recent news reports in India alleging that the Saradha Group chit fund scam money being pumped into Bangladesh for terror activities, the Nirmul Committee acting president Shahriar Kabir called for forming a joint Bangladesh-India taskforce to curb the rise of terrorism in the subcontinent.

Civil society should come forward alongside the government to prevent terrorism and communalism in the country, he observed.

Liberation War Affairs Minister AKM Mozammel Haque and the Institute of Conflict, Law and Development Studies Executive Director Maj Gen (ret'd) Abdur Rashid also spoke.

Gopa also stated that injured Himu, lying on a hospital bed, had himself described the torture on him by the accused and that his words were recorded on cellphones by his friends.

A student of Summerfield School and College in Chittagong city, Himadri Majumder Himu, 18, was beaten up brutally, had dogs set upon him and was pushed off the fourth floor of Farhad Mansion in Panchlaish residential area on April 27, 2012.

He succumbed to his wounds at the capital's Square Hospital on May 23, 2012.

The next day, a murder case was filed with Panchlaish Police Station accusing five persons.

He said the group used to work in three teams under Mafizur's leadership. One team would manage the question papers from invigilators right after the start of the exam, another team would solve the questions, and the last team would send the answers.

The gang was active during recruitment tests for Bangladesh Bank and Krishi Bank, and for admission tests of Dhaka, Jagannath and Jahangirnagar universities.
