STAR COUNTRY DESK

A Netrakona court yesterday sentenced a man to death for killing his wife and son in 2003.

The convict is Hashem, 35, son of Iman Ali of Satia village in Sadar upazila, reports our correspondent.

According to the prosecution, Hashem killed his wife Aysha, 35, and 11-monthold son Tariku following a family feud on the night of November 9, 2003. He later dumped the bodies in a nearby jungle.

On that day, Rabeya Khatun, sister of Aysha of Dudhkura village, filed a murder case with Sadar police station, accusing Hashem.

After investigation, police submitted charge

Ijtema in Patuakhali today

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali

A three-day-long Ijtema (religious congregation), arranged by Tablig Jamaat, will begin at the airport field in Sheally area of the district today. Maulana Nurul Islam, Jimmader (chief organiser) of Patuakhali Istema, said Bishwa Ijtema takes place every year at Tongi where all people cannot take part due to various problems. Considering these, the authorities took the decision to arrange Ijtema in nine separate places, including Patuakhali, across the country from this year, he said. The others venues are Satkhira, Khulna, Bagerhat, Pabna, Rajshahi, Kurigram, Noakhali and Nilphamari. Of those, Ijtema already took place in Bagerhat and Pabna while it will be arranged in the other places by turn, he said. The Ijtema in Patuakhali will begin after Fazr prayers today and will conclude on Saturday with Akheri Munajat (final prayers), he added.

Worker dies at EPZ

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Nilphamari

A construction worker died yesterday after falling from the roof of an under construction building at Uttara Export Processing Zone (EPZ) in Sadar upazila of the district. Deceased Abu Taleb, 25, who was working at the building of Sonic (Bangladesh) Ltd, a Hong Kong based high-tech toy factory, suddenly slipped and fell to the ground, said Shah Jamal Pasha, officer in-charge of Sadar Police Station quoting eyewitnesses. Co-workers rushed him to Nilphamari Sadar Hospital where the doctors declared him dead.

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Gaibandha

Police arrested a local Jamaat leader in Sadullapur upazila early yesterday. The arrestee is Jamalpur union Jamaat ameer Mezbahul Islam Rashed, a member of the union parishad. He was accused of fuelling violence during January 5 national election and attempting to kill Shahrier Khan Bipplob, secretary of Sadullapur upazila AL. He remained absconding for long, said Zia Latiful Islam, officer in-charge of Sadullapur police station.

Roadblock in B'baria

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Brahmanbaria

A faction of local Jubo League that was been dropped from ad-hoc committee blocked Dhaka-Sylhet highway at Ashuganj in the district yesterday morning. The blockade continued for about 15 minutes, said Md Abu Jafor, officer in-charge of Ashuganj police station. Md Monir Hossain, former general secretary of the committee, alleged that they blocked the highway to press for cancellation of the committee as some active leaders were dropped and some did not get proper post.

3 held on smuggling charge

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

An Indian national and two Bangladeshis were arrested at Tekerghat border in Tahirpur upazila of Sunamganj district early yesterday on charge of smuggling coal. The arrestees are John Marak, 30, of Barchhara Chota Basti under Barchhara police station in Meghalaya, Kawsar Ahmed and Muhibur Rahman of Burunga chhara village in Tahirpur, said Border Guard Bangladesh (BGB) sources. The border guards also seized about one tonnes coal smuggled from Indian state of Meghalaya from the arrestees. They were later handed over to Tahirpur police station. A case was filed in this connection, said Golam Mohiuddin Khandoker, commanding officer of Sunamganj BGB-8 told The Daily Star. The committee will soon open a probe to ascertain the certificates of the nine are genuine. The nine officials are Kamrul Hassan Mollah, director general (legal); directors Golam Yahiya and Aziz Bhuiyan; deputy directors Dhali Abdus Samad and SM Golam Mowla Siddique; ex-DD Ranjan Kumar Majumder, Assistant Inspector Abdus Sobhan and court assistants Nurul

Islam and Ishaque Fakir. The move was made against the backdrop of obtaining fake certificates by some public servants after the government increased the retirement age of freedom fighters from 57 years to 60 in two phases. Most of the nine officials, said Shahabuddin, did not declare themselves as freedom fighters while entering their jobs.

"It's not morally justifiable that the ACC will probe the allegedly forged freedom fighter certificates of others without making sure the commission itself is free from such fake certificate holders," he added. Director Golam Yahiya as a freedom fighter has already got a one-year extension in the job, said a source in Earlier, the ACC probed such certificate forgery by three secretaries, one exsecretary and one joint secretary and found irregularities and violation of Muktijoddha Council Act-2002 in issuing the five with freedom fighter certificates. The government this year
