

Govt urged to take over Jamaat-controlled firms

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

In order to root out militancy in the country, the government must take over the businesses controlled by Jamaat-e-Islami, speakers said at a human chain yesterday.

They also called upon the government to continue the operation of the International Crimes Tribunal till the last of the war criminals is punished.

Addressing the programme before the capital's National Museum, Pankaj Bhattacharya, president of National Awami Party, said there were 125 businesses, which had strengthened the economic base of Jamaat, and facilitated the party to "spread militancy". The human chain was jointly organised by the Platform Against Communalism and Militancy, and Sammilita Samajik Andolon, demanding fast execution of all war crimes verdicts, prevention of militancy, and banning of religion-based politics.

Turning to the war crimes trial, Pankaj said Khaleda Zia and BNP were confused, and they should clarify whether they were on the side of freedom fighters or against them. Ajoy Roy, convener of the Platform Against Communalism and Militancy, and leaders of Workers' Party also spoke.

Saiful Islam Titu, a member of Barisal city Jubo League, being manhandled by men allegedly led by the city Bangladesh Chhatra League President Jasimuddin at Local Government Engineering Department Barisal office yesterday. He had gone there to drop his bid for a Tk 21.9 crore Coastal Climate Resilient Infrastructures Project, being funded by the government and Asian Development Bank.

"He (Masum) was the main administrator of 117 Bangla language-based groups. The web pages are full of provocative information," Monirul said.
The Pakistani counterpart of Ansarullah Bangla Team also operates the web pages and puts contents in Arabic, Urdu and English, he said. "Masum's job was to run the Bangla version only."

ABT web pages include Bab-ul-Islam, Ansarullah Bangla, and Dawahillah. Some production houses including Balakot Media, Titumir Media, Ansarullah Bangla Media, Al Kadisia Media supply video clips to ABT to put them online, said detectives, who seized some books on jihad and one laptop from Masum. A Dhaka court remanded the arrestee for five days.

on this occasion said the changes on November 7 had "secured" the country's independence and introduced multi-party democracy.
Terming the incumbent government illegal, she said it has been "destroying" the country's economy, culture and democracy.
She urged all to get united with the spirit of November 7 to unseat the government.

Tk 21.9CR TENDER IN BARISAL BCL men assault Jubo League members

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Barisal

Three Barisal city Jubo League members yesterday accused the city Bangladesh Chhatra League president of assaulting and barring them from tendering for a Tk 21.9 crore project of Local Government Engineering Department (LGED).

Saiful Islam Titu, Kabir Hossain and Faruk Hossain claimed that they were individually bidding for the Coastal Climate Resilient Infrastructures Project, being funded by the government and Asian Development Bank.

Saiful said they were attacked by men being led by the president, Jasimuddin, on LGED Barisal office premises when they declined to refrain from submitting their bids.

Denying the beating and barring allegations, Jasimuddin claimed that he had only tried to negotiate with the three so that the pro-Awami League student organisation's men could join the project's implementation.

LGED Barisal office Executive Engineer Ruhul Amin stated that he had received no formal complaint and had called in law enforcers on hearing commotion outside the office.

Pro-AL teachers sweep DU deans' election

DU CORRESPONDENT

Pro-Awami League blue panel teachers yesterday swept the deans' election of Dhaka University, bagging eight out of the ten posts.

The deans elected from the blue panel are Prof Farid Uddin Ahmed of social sciences faculty, Prof Akhteruzzaman of arts faculty, Prof Abdul Aziz of science faculty, Prof Shibli Rubaytul Islam of business studies faculty, Prof Imdadul Haque of biological sciences faculty, Prof ASM Maksud Kamal (uncontested) of disaster science and management, Prof Rafikul Islam of engineering and technology and Prof Nesar Hossain of finearts faculty.

Pro-BNP-Jamaat (white panel) candidates Prof Taslima Mansur and Prof Saiful Islam won in the law and pharmacy faculties respectively.

Three cases were filed following Rana Plaza collapse on April 24 last year that killed at least 1,135 people and injured hundreds.
Rajuk filed a case against building owner Sohel Rana for structural fault found at the nine-storey building, constructing the structure with substandard materials and violating the national building code.
Savar police filed another case against Rana, his father Abdul Khalek, and the owners of five garments housed in the building for the loss of lives.
Sheuli Akter, wife of Jahangir Alam, whose body was recovered from the collapsed site, filed the other case against Rana, Bazlul Samad Adnan, owner of New Wave Style, and the municipality's chief engineer.
