

Outsiders confine youth to DU hall for ransom

Police rescued a youth from Jagannath Hall of Dhaka University yesterday, 24 hours after two youths confined and tortured him in a room of the dormitory demanding ransom.

Sukumar Joarder, who claims to be a chauffeur, said he came to the hall premises to play on Tuesday afternoon when Udoy Saha and Johnny Paul forced him into Room 229 in Jyotirmoy Guha Thakurta Bhaban and demanded money for buying an iPhone, the victim told The Daily Star at Shahbagh Police Station.

University sources said Udoy Saha is the younger brother of Utpal Saha, a former BCL leader at Jagannath Hall, and Johnny Paul is the son of a staff at the dormitory. Although not a student of DU, Udoy has been living in the hall for over five years, they said.

Sukumar said the youths were known to him and that they took away his phone. Police said they were informed by Sukumar's family. Udoy and Johnny went into hiding.

Death anniversary

Today is the 5th death anniversary of Shafiqul Alam Khan, a retired employee of Chandraghona Karmaphuli Paper Mills Ltd in Chittagong. He died at a Dhaka hospital in 2009.

On this occasion a milad mahfil and qurankhani will be held today at his Charandwip residence in Chittagong, said his son Advocate Khurshid Alam Khan.

Former and current students of Holy Family Red Crescent Medical College form a human chain in front of Jatiya Press Club in the capital yesterday demanding fair investigation into the death of Shamarukh Mahjabin. Shamarukh, who completed her MBBS from the college, was found dead at her in-law's house in Dhanmondi on November 13.

Hold citizens' dialogue to solve problems

Dr Kamal urges govt and Independence of Judiciary", organised by Bangladesh Gonotantrik Ainjibi Samity at the Supreme Court Bar Association's hall room.

Regarding judiciary's independence, Dr Kamal said, "The Chief Justice is like a pillar of the country and should always remain bound to his oath. If he shows biasness then a pillar falls down."

Stressing the need for an act regarding appointment of judges, he said, "For the time being you (government) have taken responsibilities of the country so why is the act yet to be formulated? Judges should be recruited upon their merit and skill."

Photo exhibition on sanitation opens at DU

What seems to be a kitchen where plates and utensils are being washed, on closer inspection, reveals to be a bathroom of Sir Salimullah Medical College and Mitford Hospital. A man urinates on a wall bearing slogans of the 1971 Liberation War.

Scenes like these depicting the capital's poor sanitation scenario may evoke feelings of despair like there is no place to escape.

And this is what, to be exact in Bangla "Jabar Kono Jayga Ney", the title of a three-day exhibition is, organised by Dhaka University Photographic Society at Teacher-Student Centre showcasing some 60 pictures captured this month marking World Toilet Day.

Inaugurated by Pro-Vice Chancellor (administration) Prof Shahid Akhter Hossain, the exhibition will remain open for all from 10:00am to 8:00pm.

Rajuk, housing project

The notice asked the respondents to immediately take steps to revive the wetlands of Savar, where housing scheme MMT had been established. It also asked them to inform Bela in 15 days about the steps.

"If they do not inform us about the steps, we will file a contempt of court petition with the Supreme Court against them," Iqbal Kabir told The Daily Star yesterday.

He said the SC on August 7, 2012 declared the MMT project at the sub-flood zone of Bilamalia and Baliarpur mouzas in Savar illegal.

On July 11 last year, the SC directed MMDL to restore the wetlands within six months.

Resilience fund to combat extremism launched

The Global Community Engagement and Resilience Fund (GCERF) was launched in Geneva yesterday to build resilience against violent extremist agenda.

The fund will support local community-level initiatives in the areas of education, youth, women's advocacy, public awareness, social entrepreneurship and vocational training.

It is expected that in the initial phase, GCERF's core funding will be made available for projects in Bangladesh along with other countries, according to a foreign ministry press release.

Homeless

Women must

FROM PAGE 5 Jubo Mohila League General Secretary Apu Ukil said, "We will have to concentrate on creating more women leaders in our respective parties."

BNP Vice Chairman Selima Rahman, Jatiya Party Presidium Member Prof Masuda M Rashid Chowdhury, DI Director (grassroots programs) Katie Croake, USAID Mission Director Janina Jaruzelski, Bangladesh Women Chamber of Commerce and Industry President Selima Ahmad and dozens of grassroots female political leaders attended the function.

I hit your leg

FROM PAGE 5 not a hard blow! But my cycle had a different story--the rear wheel was bent and immovable.

With frustration and another 6km to go before I reach home, I asked the driver of the police vehicle, "Look what you have done!"
