

Will 2015 Be The Best Movie Year Ever? Here's 3 of next year's biggest films!

FIFTY SHADES OF GREY (February 13)

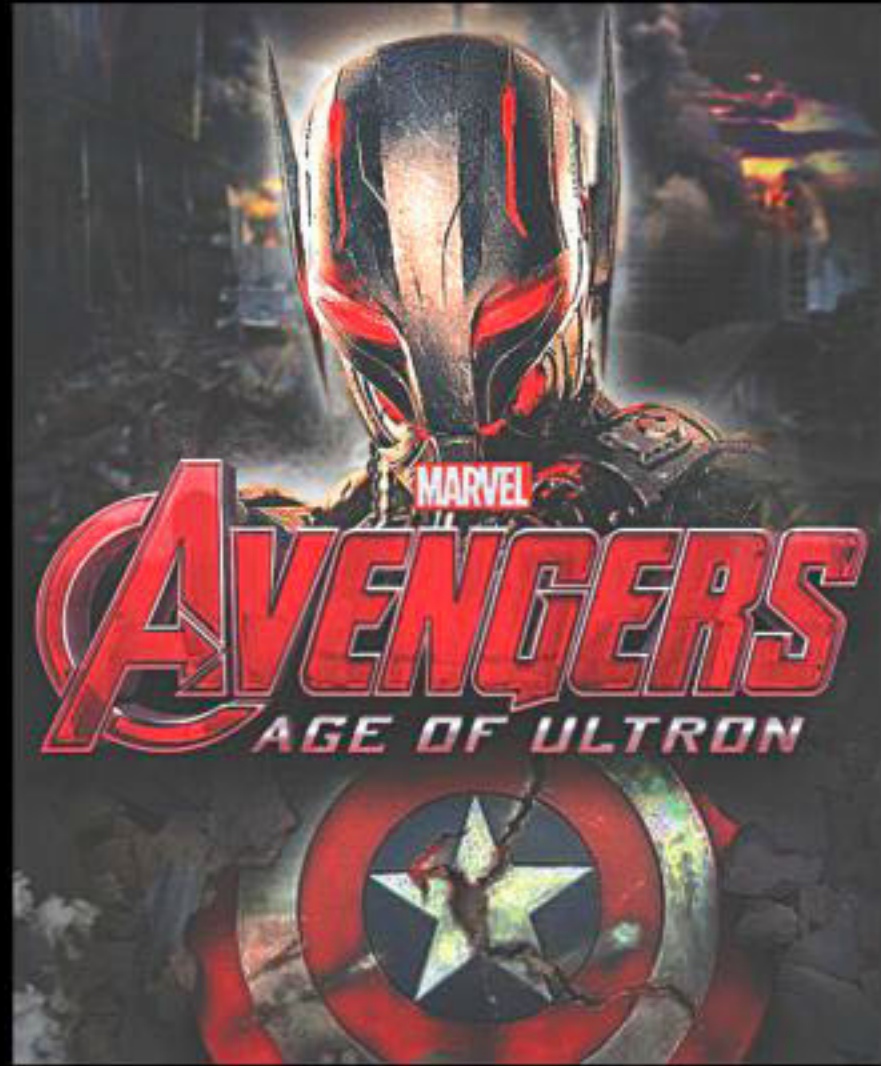

Based on E.L. James' erotic best-seller, Fifty Shades of Grey follows Anastasia "Ana" Steele, a 21 year old college senior. In place of

To date, the "Fifty Shades" trilogy has sold over 70 million copies worldwide in e-book and print, making it one of the fastest-selling book series ever. FURIOUS 7 (April 3)

Chris Morgan has altered the script, but it remains unclear how Paul Walker's death will be addressed. After initial speculation that the character will be "retired" or killed off, it was reported that remaining scenes featuring Walker will be completed using body doubles and CGI faces.

THE AVENGERS: AGE OF ULTRON (May 1)

Earth's Mightiest Heroes must reunite when our planet is threatened by the incredibly powerful robot Ultron... who may or may not be a cast off from Tony Stark's army of iron suits (depending on which rumors you choose to believe). Joss Whedon once again helms an ensemble adventure for Marvel, concluding the studio's Phase Two with an expected bang that could set the stage for Phase Three. Whedon's blockbuster kicks off the busy summer slate, and should get us started on the right, explosive foot.

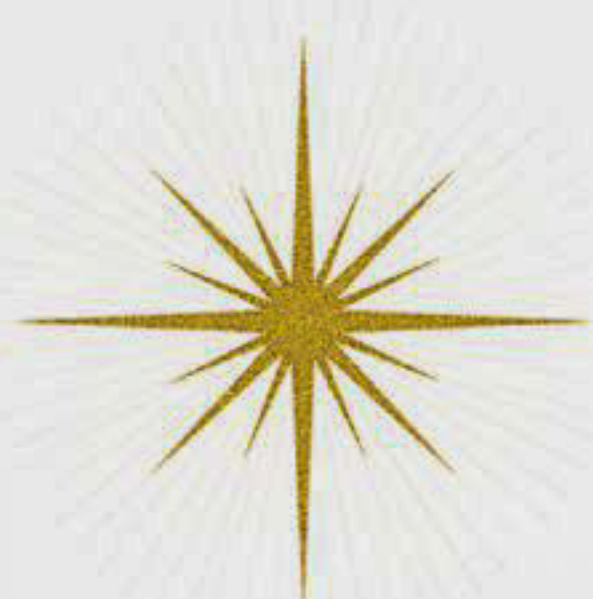

her friend Kate, Ana interviews 27-year-old Christian Grey, a successful and wealthy young entrepreneur. From this meeting on, Christian engages with Ana in a new type of relationship - BDSM. Fifty Shades of Grey has become a global phenomenon and the trilogy has been translated in over 50 languages worldwide since its release.

If two bald headed baddies in one film wasn't enough, let's add Jason Statham as a revenge seeking assassin to the testosterone hyped duo of Vin Diesel and the Rock. A continuation of the franchise, Fast and the Furious 7 continues after Dominic Torreto and his crew took down Owen Shaw, his brother, Ian Shaw, now wants revenge. Screenwriter
