Badsha also said the alliance had no political activities now and it had become a "press conference-based" combine. "It's meaningless to remain in the alliance if we can't make it vibrant," he said.

Badsha also called upon the government not to hike gas prices considering the resulting burden on lowand middle-income people.

He also demanded a ban on Asia Energy, a mining company, in Bangladesh.

Lambasting the USA, Badsha said the imperialist force was conspiring to turn Bangladesh into a Syria by backing fundamentalists.

"But we won't let it happen." The party called upon all leftist forces to get united under one umbrella for development of the country.

Vice Chancellor Prof AAMS Arefin Siddique said, "We need to launch a strong campaign to create public awareness against such road mishaps."

"We hope our effort will inspire people to stand beside the thousands of people who face the threat of such a road accident every year, every month," said cultural personality Nasir Uddin Yousuff.

Noted film actor Ilias Kanchan, also chairman of Nirapad Sarak Chai, demanded that government officials responsible for allowing unfit vehicles to ply the streets be punished.

Job fair begins at RU

RU Vice Chancellor Prof Muhammad Mizanuddin, who inaugurated the fair at Old Folklore Chattar, urged all the giant institutions to take part in it every year.

Among others, RU pro-VC Prof Chowdhury Sarwar Jahan, and Student Adviser Prof Sadequl Arefin Matin addressed the ceremony conducted by RUCC President Imrul Kabir Khan.

A total of 20 companies and institutions including The Daily Star, Grameen Phone and Varendra University, are participating in the fair where any eligible individual can apply for a job.

At The Daily Star stall, 60 CVs from RU students were submitted yesterday, the organisers said.

The fair will remain open from 9:00am to 5:00pm today.

Allured by Jahangir's claims that a Narsingdi Dervish (saint) could double money, Pavel went to the district with Faysal, who, along with Farhad, drugged and then strangled him before taking the money and burying the body, they added.

"We need the address to find him (Faysal) in case he gets bail and goes into hiding, said the investigation officer, Sub-inspector Monir Hussen, recently. He is the fourth one to have been appointed with the previous ones being transferred elsewhere.

Faysal was interrogated during a two-day remand and on two days at the jail gate, but to no avail, he said, adding that one address which Faysal did give was that of his elder sister in Narsingdi.

On why it was taking so long, Monir said he took over the case this month and recom-

Viral Disease, Dr Be-Nazir Ahmed, director (disease control) at the Directorate General of Health Services, said, "Though we are far away from the origin of EVD, we and the whole world are under threat."

This type of threat can be faced with biosafety and biosecurity, he added.

He said natural outbreaks of diseases could pose challenges to global undermining national economies, international trade and travel, public health and safety, trust of populace in its own government, leading to fragile state collapse. Biosafety programmes are crucial to control such outbreaks and an overall crisis situation, he added.
