Training on Social Business Development

Date: Saturday, 6 December

Time: 10:00am - 5:00pm

Venue: EMK Center, House 5, Road 16 (New) 27 (Old), 9th Floor, Midas Center, Dhanmondi

Training on Social Business Development is an initiative of Social Business Youth Network which will give you the tools to learn about Social Business along with designing and testing potential social business models. Based on the work of Professor Muhammad Yunus, The Social Business Model Canvas is a sustainable entrepreneurial tool. It allows you to describe, design, challenge, invent and pivot your social business model. This theoretical and practical workshop will provide the opportunity to learn how to indicate a social problem even at a very small scale and use a simple yet effective tool that allows you to visualise all the elements of your social business model. By the end of the workshop, you will know the basics of social business, gain experience of using the Social Business Model Canvas framework, learn about different business models and explore the business models used by successful social enterprises. Registration Fee: 500 BDT (Registration is required). Participant Number: 80 people (Max). Certificates and lunch will be provided on the completion of training.

Cartoon exhibition, Meet the faces

Date: 5-18 December

Time: Day Long

Venue: Alliance Francaise, La Gallaria

The 1st solo Cartoon Exhibition by Nasreen Sultana Mitu will be held at Alliance Francaise. Nasreen Sultana Mitu has been drawing cartoons and caricatures professionally since 2006. She began cartooning in Unmad magazine under the direct supervision of the legendary cartoonist, editor and publisher of Unmad magazine Mr Ahsan Habib. Mitu is now an Assistant Editor for the same magazine. In 2010, Mitu started her career as a political cartoonist for the Daily New Age. After the 2013 Rana Plaza incident, her cartoon immediately went viral on social media. The cartoon was featured prominently in public television.

Mitu found her métier for drawing caricature in 2011. Her extraordinary and unorthodox interpretation of human faces is a celebrated item in the social media. In Bangladesh, caricatures mostly mock and criticise the political leaders but Mitu sees it as an exclusive form of art that conveys human characteristics beyond the boundaries of politics and pop culture. This year, her exhibition Meet the Faces, is going to take place as the first ever solo caricature exhibition in Bangladesh.
