

CHECK IT OUT

Pond's presents The Lustrous Runway

THE Lustrous Runway has established itself as an iconic fashion show in the city, exhibiting innovative designers and flying in popular Bollywood celebrities. This year, the Lustrous Runway surprised us with not one, but two fashion shows, the second one taking place a few days ago on Saturday, 28 November at Radisson Blu Water Garden Hotel.

Designers who wowed the crowd with a glimpse of their creative repertoire included Paera Bags by Kaaruj Bangladesh, Studio Omana with jewellery by Sasha Exclusives, Nova Genuine Swarovski, Nuzat Nawar, Kimaya Design Studio, Sarah Karim and Indian designer Purvi Doshi.

Models from both home and abroad took over the ramp, resplendent in the creations of the designers. The celebrity showstopper was gorgeous Bollywood model and actress Malaika Arora Khan, who stunned the crowd in a blue and silver gown-style kameez by Sarah Karim. Another standout was Shishir Al Hasan, wife of number one cricket all-rounder Shakib Al Hasan, who walked for Purvi Doshi in a white embroidered gown.

It was apparent that the designers are still enthralled with all things embellished and sparkling, perhaps with the festive season in mind and the willingness of customers to wear heavy, ornamented clothing during the cooler weather. Experimenting with cuts is another big change that the talented designers are embracing: the traditional sari and shalwar kameez are both revamped using different fabrics, accessories and techniques.

Pond's presents The Lustrous Runway provides a platform for local designers like none other. It is also a great night for fashion aficionados to get together and appreciate the blooming fashion industry in the country together.
