

ZERO DEGREE

COMING SOON

Animesh Aich directed Zero Degree just had its soundtrack and trailer launch ceremony on Thursday, 4th December 2014. This film is particularly special as this would be acclaimed actor Mahfuz Ahmed's debut as a producer. Also starring in this movie will be Jaya Ahsan and Ruhi. The entire crew was also present at the ceremony on Thursday. The film was scheduled to be released on January 14th but due to Istema, the release date has been moved until it's over.

Ruhi

plans a return

It hasn't been that long since talented actress Dilruba Yasmin Ruhi tied the knot with Bangladeshi born British director Mansur Ali and shifted to England. Her absence however has sparked a lot of rumours that she may have concluded her career here and moved on for good. Well, we can end that controversy as Ruhi herself has confirmed that she isn't done here yet. Currently, she is in talks with three international projects although she hasn't signed on to anything yet. Apart from that, she plans to continue her career here as well, so don't count her out just yet.

Asif lands in Bollywood

Asif Azim, famous Bangladeshi model, is about to have his wish fulfilled as he is currently in talks to appear in a Bollywood movie. He has declined to release any further information but sources tell us that he is currently preparing for his role. Asif, who is already doing well in the modeling world outside Bangladesh as well as featuring in Bigg Boss but, has always wanted to work in Bollywood so this marks a special occasion for him.

Peya in India

The recent trend of national celebrities working on international projects is always a welcoming change. Another celebrity to add her name into that chosen few rank is Peya Jannatul. She is currently shooting for a music video in India. The music video is for the song "Morey Saiyaan" by Roots. She will also be working alongside Indian model Himangshu. She is currently working for famous Indian agency Mascot Model Management as well as several projects; one of which is an advertisement for Nokia. She is currently in talks with an American based modeling agency called Slovak.

