

An Artiste's Life

Khalil Ullah Khan was a leading Bangladeshi actor who achieved equally remarkable success in film, television and theatre. During his 50 years of acting career Khalil starred in 86 movies with pioneers like Zahir Raihan and Kalim Sharafi. This veteran actor was honoured with National Film Awards several times. He played an active role in promoting healthy entertainment and social messages through Bangladeshi films and television serials. We pay homage to this great artiste on his sudden departure from this world on December 7, 2014.

Khalil Ullah Khan

- Khalil Ullah Khan was born on February 2, 1934 in Kumarpara, Sylhet
- Along with his police officer father, he travelled to different remote districts of Bengal such as Krishnanagar, Medinipur, Bogra etc.
- He completed his schooling in Sylhet and graduated from Sylhet MC College
- Khalil then went to Quetta to join the Pakistan army as a commissioned officer

- In 1952 Khalil returned to Bangladesh (then East Pakistan) and joined Ansar as an adjutant
