Kapoor shared her joy of sharing the dais by posting a picture of herself with the two leaders on Twitter. The actress lit the traditional lamp at the World Diamond Conference.

Stupid to say extramarital affair doesn't exist: Raima Sen

Actress Raima Sen, who plays an important role in "Ishq Kabhi Kariyo Na", based on extra marital affair, says it would be unwise to say such illicit love affairs don't exist in society. Rana Bhatia has directed "Ishq Kabhi Kariyo Na", which also features Prateik Babbar, and the actress is confident about the film connecting well with viewers. "Audiences are ready to accept such subjects ... it also happens in reality. It would be stupid to say that extramarital affairs do not exist in our society," she said. "I feel people will relate to the film and they should come and watch the film." Raima, who has worked with actors like Sanjay Dutt and Rahul Bose, shares a good rapport with her co-star Prateik. Raima is playing a married woman, who is rich and madly in love with her husband and then Prateik's character enters her life. She says what happens when Prateik enters her life is a mystery.

KATE UPTON

wins People's Sexiest Woman alive award

Actress-model Kate Upton has been crowned the Sexiest Woman alive award by People magazine at a function here. The 22-year-old model, who featured on the cover of 'Sports Illustrated Swimsuit Issue', received the award from 'Grey's Anatomy' star Eric Dane at the Beverly Hilton hotel, reported People Magazine. "This is such an honour to me because sexy to me means someone who's confident and happy," said Upton. Dane while presenting the honour to her mentioned the reason why Upton has won this award. "There are a lot of reasons why Kate is sexy. Style, career, achievements, sense of humor, personality, oh and did I mention her... Looks?" Dane said. She acted in a movie alongside Cameron Diaz and Leslie Mann in 'The Other Woman' this year.
