

Dedication at its best

Bidya Sinha Mim seems to be heading down the path of a proper dedicated actress of Bangladesh. The past year has been very busy for Mim as she has acted in quite a number of films along with being signed up for more. One of her films, titled Good Morning London, required her to go to London for the shoot. Her dedication got full exposure during many of her projects of last year. One of them, a film by Tonmoy Tahsen, involved her travelling to Rangamati where she had a scene on a boat. The scene, a song for the film, demanded that she stand on a boat for a number of hours. We hope this type of dedication pays off and the cinema industry of Bangladesh takes note and starts a reform.
