

SKETCH: YAFIZ SIDDIQUI

“ Genius might be the ability to say a profound thing in a simple way.

I would be married, but I'd have no wife, I would be married to a single life.

I don't like jail, they got the wrong kind of bars in there.

Bad taste creates many more millionaires than good taste.”

CHARLES BUKOWSKI

August 16, 1920 – March 9, 1994

Celebrated German-born American poet, novelist and short story writer Charles Bukowski's work addresses the ordinary lives of underprivileged Americans, the act of writing, alcoholism, relationships with women, and the drudgery of work. He wrote thousands of poems, hundreds of short stories and six novels, eventually publishing over sixty books.
