

Kusum Shikder in a new light

We all know the beauty that is Kusum Shikder. Ever since she emerged as the winner from the Lux-Anandadhara Beauty Pageant, she has acted in numerous TV dramas and gained a massive fan following. After her step into the world of film, she has gained even more popularity. The reason of course, is very simple. Unlike many of her contemporaries, she chooses her work very carefully. Now though, we get to see her in a whole new way as she has just finished a poetry book which is slated to be published at the upcoming Ekushe Boi Mela.

Lavlu back in TV Serials

Salauddin Lavlu's importance as an actor cannot be understated. Back when he was active, he would be part of many different productions. Now however, he has limited his participation in acting to a bare minimum and just focuses on directing instead. After a long break however, we will get a chance to see this genius on TV again as he has just signed on to appear on an upcoming Bangla TV Series. The name of the TV Series will be "Khorokuto". This TV Series also allows him to indulge in his passion for working in rural areas as this series is based around a rural area. This series also brings to light many of the current feminine issues to light. Be sure to catch it when it airs.

Jack of all trades: Mousumi Nag

Viewers know Mousumi Nag mostly through her acting in vast TV Dramas. Several of her TV Dramas are aired on different channels every day so you can hardly ever miss it. There is a new TV serial, however, that may just stand out from the rest of her previous works. The series "Dolchut Projapoti" is a bit special as it allows her to try out a whole different kind of character. This is working out great for her as her character as well the series itself is becoming popular. Her magic is not just limited to the TV realm either as she has already stepped into the film business with her work in the film "Runout", which will be released sometime this year. If those weren't impressive enough, she also does modeling from time to time.
