

ZINEDINE ZIDANE

June 23, 1972

One of the all-time greats, soccer player Zinedine Zidane was born in Marseille, France. He led France to victory at the 1998 FIFA World Cup and won a three-time FIFA World Player of the Year. Zidane joined Real Madrid's front office as an adviser and was named the club's sporting director in 2011 and later begin his coaching carrier at Real Madrid's youth academy.

“ It was my father who taught us that an immigrant must work twice as hard as anybody else that he must never give up.

It doesn't matter how many times you win an award, it is always very special.

I was lucky to come from a difficult area. It teaches you not just about football but also life. There were lots of kids from different races and poor families.

People had to struggle to get through the day.

“ A Mediterranean city is really my culture. ”
