

Schoolgirl rescued an hour into abduction

One kidnapper held, microbus seized

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Jhenidah

A schoolgirl was rescued an hour into abduction from Rishkhali village in Harinakundo upazila of the district yesterday.

Police arrested one of the abductors named Abdus Salam, 24, son of Shahidul Islam of Dakhalpur village in the upazila.

Ershadul Kabir, officer in charge of Harinakundo Police Station, said a gang of two abducted the 12-year-old girl, also a class VI student at Rishkhali International Pre-Cadet School, while she was going to attend her coaching classes at the school around 8:40am. The gang immediately left the scene in a microbus.

Being informed by a witness to the incident, law enforcers put up barricades at all entry and exit points of the upazila town.

They caught Salam and rescued the girl from a narrow lane of the town around 9:30am and seized the microbus.

Another abductor, Rana Hossain, 22, and the driver of the microbus, however, managed to escape the arrest, the OC added.

In primary interrogation, Salam told police that they tried to kidnap the girl in a bid to realise ransom from her family, said the OC.

Away in Moulvibazar, Abbas Ali, 13, a class VII student of Hingazia Senior Madrasa in Kulaura upazila, abducted on January 24 from Gurabhui village in the upazila, still remains traceless, reports our correspondent.

Victim's father Nurul Islam lodged a case with Kulaura Police Station in this connection the same night.

Police are conducting drives to rescue the boy, said Atiqur Rahman, officer in charge (OC) of the police station.

500 kg jatka seized in Munshiganj

UNB, Munshiganj

Coastguards and officials of the district fisheries department seized 500 kilograms of jatka (hilsa less than 10 inches long) from two launches in the Dhaleshwari River yesterday.

Sadar upazila fisheries officer Shahjada Khasru said a joint team of coastguard and the district fisheries department conducted drives in two Dhaka-bound launches named MV Karnaphuli-3 and MV Farhan-2 in the morning and seized 500 kilograms of jatka.

The owners of the hilsa fish managed to flee the scene, sensing the presence of the team, Khasru added.

The seized hilsa were later distributed among local orphanages and madrasas.

The government imposed a ban on catching jatka for eight months from November 1 last year to boost production of the popular fish.

Rape of Marma girl sparks protest in Khagrachhari

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Khagrachhari

A human chain was formed in the district town yesterday, demanding exemplary punishment to a culprit who raped a 21-year-old girl of the Marma Community on Wednesday.

The district unit of Hill Women's Federation (HWF) organised the programme at Changhi Square in the town.

The participants in the rally urged the government to take immediate steps to ensure security of hill women.

Among others, Barun Chakma, leader of Democratic Youth Forum (DYF), Ratan Chakma, leader of Pahari Chhatra Parishad (PCP), and Abonika Chakma, leader of HWF, spoke at the rally.

Bikash Barua of Pankhaiyapara village allegedly raped the Marma girl at his house at the village. Receiving complaint from the victim, locals caught the rapist and handed him over to the police, said Mizanur Rahman, officer in-charge (OC) of Sadar Police Station. A case was filed with the police, station, accusing Bikash Barua.

Police sent the girl Khagrachhari Adhunik Sadar Hospital for medical test on the day, said the OC.

Accused in Nandail JCD activist killing case yet to be arrested

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Mymensingh

Police are yet to arrest the killers of a local Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal activist, who was hacked to death in Chandipasha area under Nandail upazila on Wednesday.

The deceased is Asif Parvez Tapan, 23, a member of the Nandail upazila unit of JCD and son of Abdur Razzaq, a retired warrant officer of Bangladesh Air Force. He was a LLB second year student of a college in Kishoreganj district.

Police and family sources said JCD activists Ashrafuzzaman and Masud, friends of Asif, called him out of their house over cellphone around 7:00pm on Wednesday and took him to Chandipasha area.

A gang of 8/10, led by Ashrafuzzaman and Masud, then hit him with sharp weapons, leaving him critically injured.

Asif succumbed to his injuries at Mymensingh Medical College and Hospital on arrival.

A case was filed with the police station concerned, accusing Ashraf, Masud and 10 others on the night.

ASM Azizul Islam, mayor of Nandail municipality, said Asif was a candidate for the post of president of the JCD municipality committee, scheduled to be formed the next month.

Asif might have been killed over political rivalry, said Kazi Ayubur Rahman, officer-in-charge of Nandail Police Station.

Police are raiding different areas to arrest the killers, the OC added.
