

NEPAL

ONLY a short flight away from Dhaka, this quintessential country is blessed with stunning landscapes. The moment you arrive in Nepal, you will be greeted with soothing breeze and mesmerising Himalayan mountains towering all around and as far as you can see. In Kathmandu, you can visit the Garden of Dreams or Swapna Bagaicha for a quiet picnic with your partner. The Durbar Square is the heart of the capital city brimming with spectacular temples. You can cycle to Patan Museum and explore religious art of Asia consisting of statues, carvings and paintings. You can stop by at the excellent Museum Cafe for refreshing coffee and head towards Pokhara, an ethereal bliss of pure lakes and steaming jungles. It takes approximately five hours to reach Pokhara on bus from Kathmandu and the journey itself is full of awe. Hold your loved one close and look out the window to breathe in the grandeur of rolling green mountains. Pokhara will greet you with warm sun and adrenaline packed activities. It is one of the best places in the world to try out bungee jumping and paragliding. Take a taxi before sunrise and get off at the road by Baglung Highway near Bindhya Basini Temple. The World Peace Pagoda in Pokhara is another place that one should not miss. The striking white structure stands tall on a high ridge overlooking Phewa Lake of Pokhara.

The four corners of the Pagoda portray different stages of enlightenment of Buddha. After spending an ample few hours here, you can hike down to the Phewa Lake and enjoy a lazy boat ride. In Nepal, there is no chance to be disheartened. You can have a relaxed time as well as try out all sorts of fun filled activities.

VIETNAM

THIS utterly exotic country is the epicenter of cultural influences. There is a strong hold of Indian and Hindu culture in the south which can be seen in the Cham temples, spicy regional cuisine with lots of coconut and red chillies. Chinese heritage is more visible in the northern region. In the center you will see the legacy of French colonisation with delicious baguettes and countless road side cafes. For newlyweds, Vietnam is a rewarding beginning. Hoi An, the legendary old port town located in central Vietnam, has everything to suit your needs. There are coral islands just a thirty minute bicycle trip away where you can revitalise your bond with your partner in the midst of alluring seascape. The white royal pagodas, Hoi An Heritage Area and Marble Mountains are a must for a visual treat. Phu Quoc, a small teardrop island, is an invitation to paradise. It is the largest island in Vietnam consisting of a national park that covers almost seventy percent of the land coverage. The Fine Arts Museum displays modern and contemporary art pieces as well as sculptures of Buddha, Vishnu and other figures dating back to seventh-fourteenth century. You can finish off your day in the city with your loved one by enjoying a dinner cruise along the Saigon River. Vietnam assures quality vacation with your partner, and you will revel in an unforgettable experience of your life.

CAMBODIA

LOCATED in the southern portion of Indochina Peninsula in Southeast Asia, this country is known for Angkor Wat, an empire of temples and fascinating history. You can begin your honeymoon by visiting the divine temples. After spending a few hours in spiritual devotion, you can head towards the National Museum where you can learn more about Khmer Empire and where shops and restaurants are located. You can then head towards Koh Rong islands, southwest Cambodia, dotted with exquisite beaches. The most remote, untouched and graceful beaches, perfect for honeymooners, lie here.

Sun loving honeymooners can bask on the dazzling white beaches all day and forget the frenzy of city life. You can go fishing, boat cruising and hiking during the day and enjoy a scrumptious candlelit dinner by the sea. Some of the beaches are popular for its photo phosphorescent waters caused by bio-luminescent planktons. Cozy star-gazing by the plankton lit seas is a must to do activity to finish your luxurious day with your loved one.
