

Rally for women's rights tomorrow in capital

Organised by One Billion Rising with the theme of revolution

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Women's rights activists with One Billion Rising, a global campaign to end violence against women, have organised a rally for tomorrow at Shahbagh in the capital to change people's mindset and attitude towards females.

They have also arranged a street play, a painting exhibition and a torch rally to create mass awareness about oppression of women.

The rights activists announced the programmes at a press conference at Dhaka Reporters Unity yesterday.

One Billion Rising's theme this year is "revolution".

In Bangladesh, more than 90,000 women were victims of violence last year and 1.5 lakh women were victims of different forms of torture in 10 years from 2001, said development activist Fawzia Khondakar, based on police records. She added that more than 10 women are oppressed every week in Bangladesh, according to the UN Women's statistics, and different NGO researches.

Bangladesh Police Women's Network and other such organisations will also take part in tomorrow's programmes.

Youth arrested for leaking question papers

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A youth was arrested on Wednesday night on the charge of leaking question papers of different public examinations, including the ongoing SSC exams.

Detectives arrested Aasaduzzaman Noor Shakil alias Reazul Islam, a first year student at Government Titumir College, in Dakkhin Khan area of the capital.

Tipped-off, a team of Detective Branch of police arrested Shakil in a drive and also recovered a laptop, a pen drive and several sets of sample question papers, said DB Joint Commissioner Monirul Islam at a press briefing at DMP media centre yesterday.

He claimed Shakil was involved with Islami Chhatra Shibir.

"Shakil contacted examinees and their guardians on Facebook," Monirul said.

The joint commissioner added that sometimes Shakil could not manage to get questions of the public exams and made his own, but sold them claiming otherwise.

Monirul said the arrestee never met with his clients but earned several lakh taka through bKash.

Detectives are investigating the matter to find out Shakil's sources and associates.

ADMISSION TO MEDICAL COLLEGES

SC upholds 5pc quota for FFs' children, grandchildren

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Supreme Court yesterday upheld a High Court verdict that directed the government to strictly follow the five percent quota for freedom fighters' children and grandchildren's admission to medical and dental colleges.

The SC passed the order after dismissing an appeal filed by the government challenging the HC verdict.

After a writ was filed, the HC on March 6 last year said the government had to follow the rules in admitting freedom fighters' children in Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MBBS) and Bachelor of Dental Surgery courses for the 2013-14 academic session, although the admission for the session had already been completed.

Delwar Hossain Khan, son of freedom fighter Abul Kashem, submitted the petition in November 2013 saying that his daughter Lamia Hossain Muna appeared for the MBBS admission test for the 2013-2014 session.

If the authorities would follow the five percent quota rule then she could be admitted to a medical college, he said.

Petitioner's counsel Sikder Maqbul Huq told The Daily Star that the authorities had to allow Lamia Hossain Muna to get admission for second year's MBBS course this year, since she had completed first year's MBBS course in a private medical college.

Why delay in producing them

Sakhawat Hossain would be granted bail after the defence reasoned his cancer treatment while prosecutors argued it could be provided in custody.

Now involved with Jatiya Party,

Sakhawat, arrested at Dhaka's Uttar Khan on November 29, 2014, was a central committee member of Islami Chhatra Sangha, Jamaat-e-Islami's student body in 1971, say locals and investigators.

They add that he joined the Razakar Bahini, the Pakistani occupation army's auxiliary force, during the Liberation War and was the in-charge of Hissladanga Razakar camp of Jessore's Keshabpur.
