

KACCHE ASHAR SHAHOSHI GOLPO

Close-Up had started a very innovative concept a while back called "Close up Kacche Ashar Golpo". The show is basically about love story dramas based on real stories from real people. The general public is asked to send in their stories on how they met and fell for their significant others. These stories are then checked and the best three are chosen to be shot as dramas and showed during Valentine's Day.

VALENTINE'S DAY 2015 marks their third outing and this year, they've changed things up a bit. This year, the program is called "Close-Up Kacche Ashar Shahoshi Golpo". The reason for the rename is because this year, they plan to portray stories of love in very difficult social situations. This year, stories of love in difficult circumstances was the requisite and, like their last 2 outings, they have received tons of stories, of which, three have been chosen to be shot as dramas.

All these stories will be made into dramas which will air on Bangla Vision, media partner for this campaign, on Valentine's Day so don't miss it.
