

Unstable and Dangerous

Dhaka. This wobbly bamboo bridge is the only way from Nandipara Trimohoni area to Demra's Bhidpur area. The locals demand a permanent structure over fears that the bridge might collapse.

Getting Ready

Dhaka. The central Shaheed Minar gets a facelift in the capital before the Language Movement Day and International Mother Language Day on February 21.

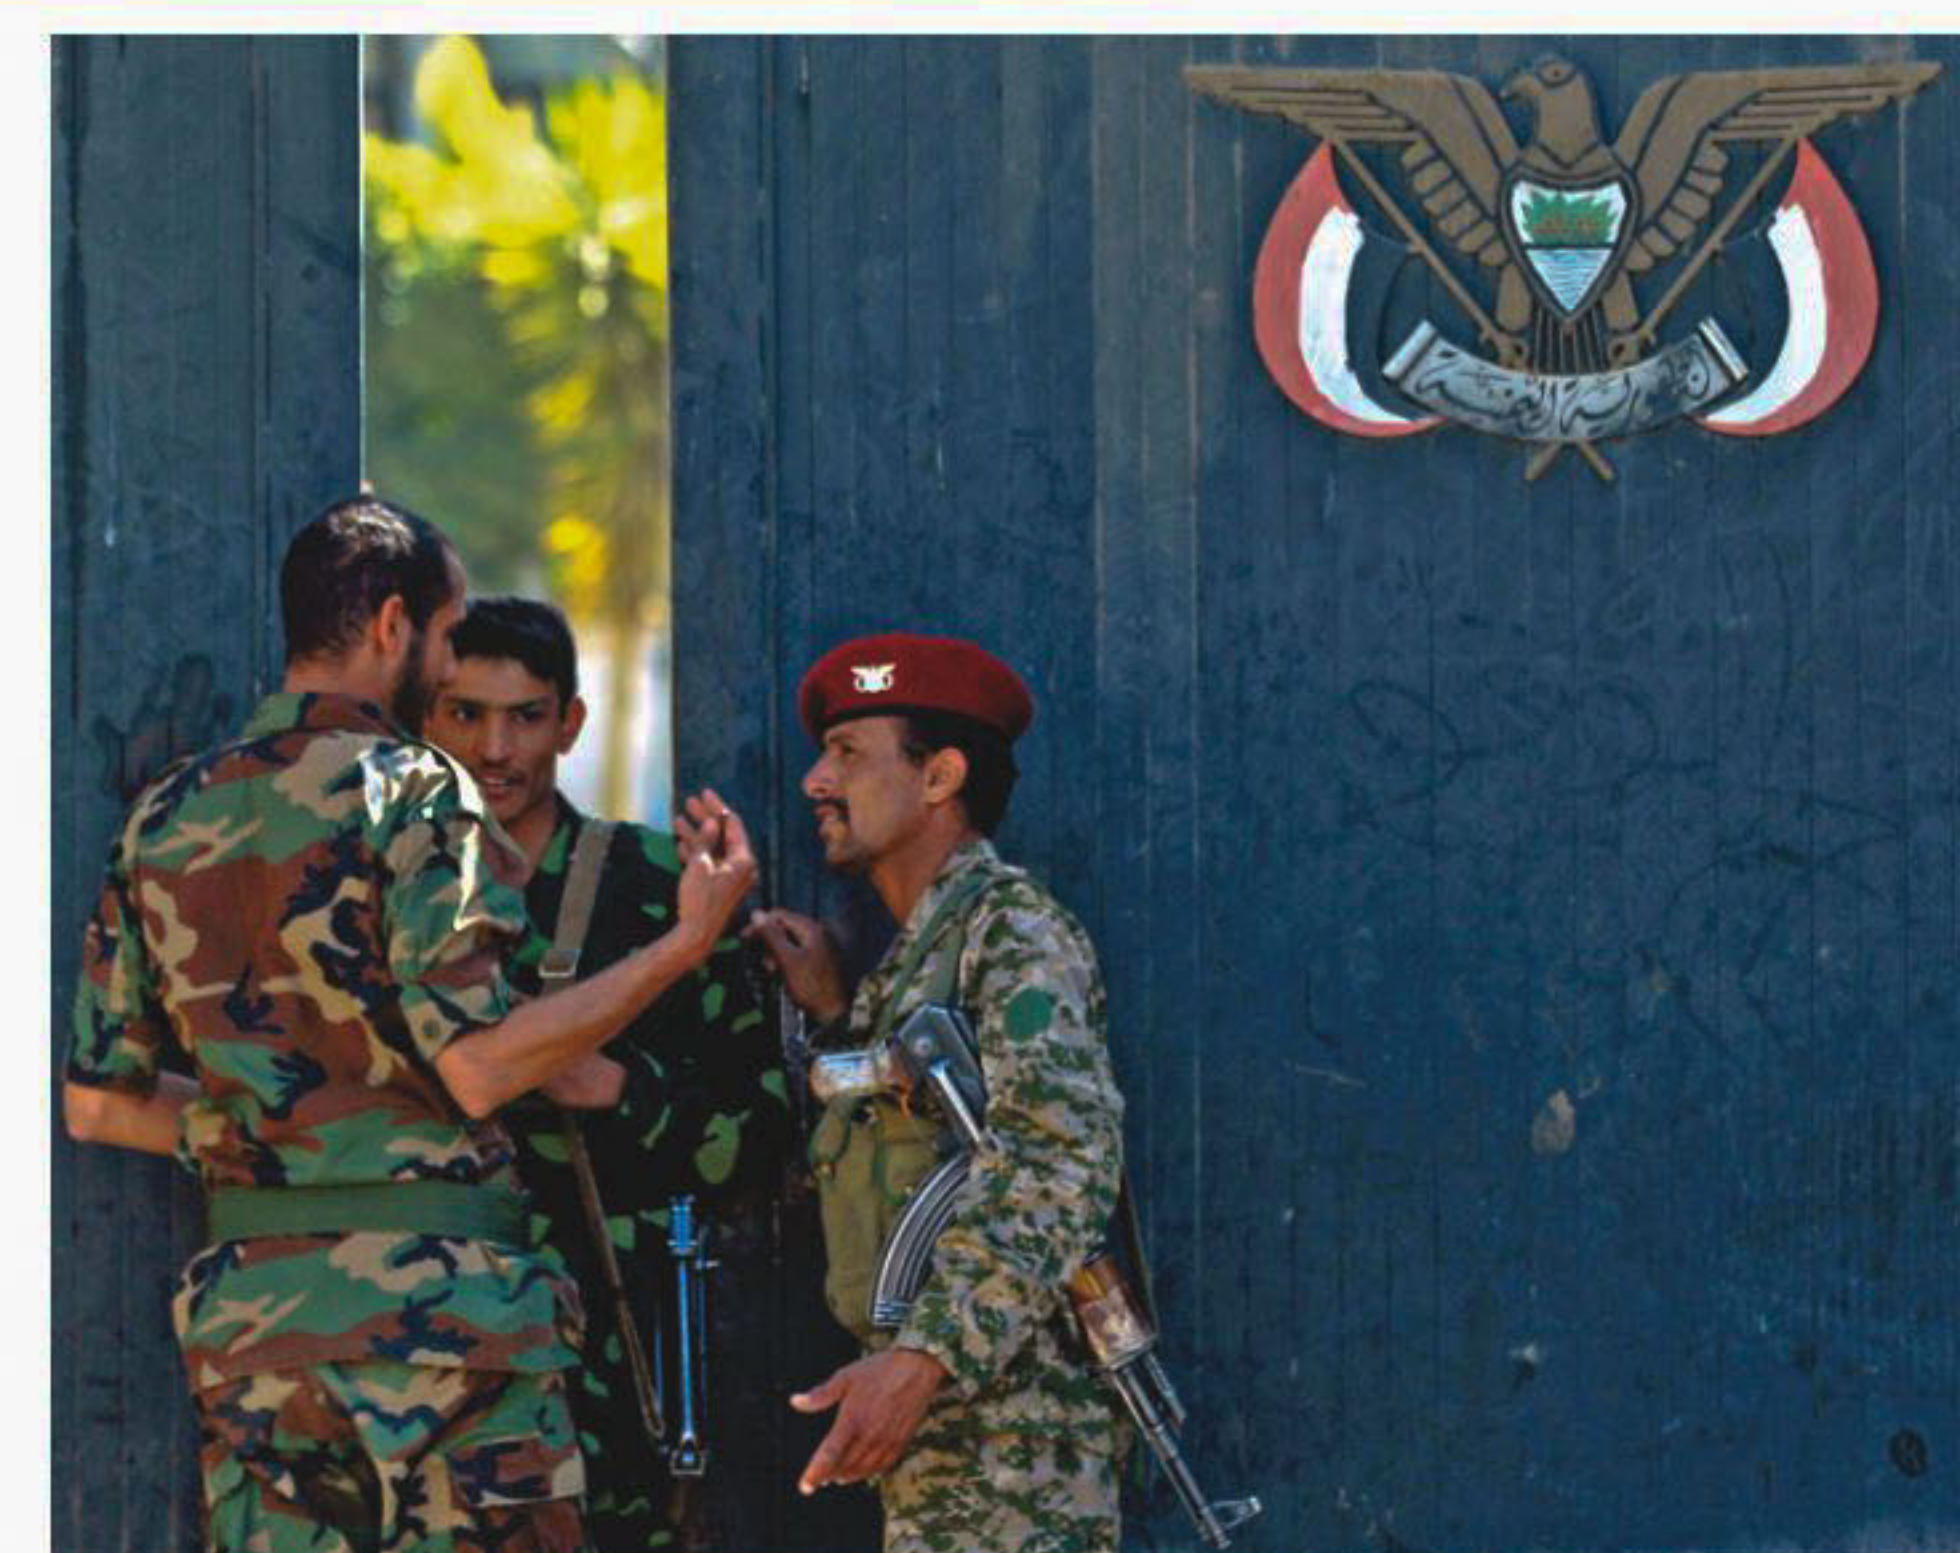

Cycling Frenzy

Yvelines, France: Poland's cyclists train on the eve of the start of the Track Cycling World Championships in Saint-Quentin-en-Yvelines, outside Paris.

ISIS Brutality Continues

Minya, Egypt: Relatives of Egyptian Coptic Christians purportedly murdered by ISIS militants in Libya react after hearing the news in the village of Al-Awar.

Huthi Loyalists

Sanaa, Yemen: Yemeni soldiers loyal to the Huthi movement stand guard at the entrance of the presidential palace. On February 15, 2015, the UN's Security Council urged the Huthis to cede power and negotiate in "good faith."

5

Number of days for which more than 30 people including leaders and activists of BNP and staff of Khaleda Zia's Gulshan office have been living on dry food as police have unofficially cut off food supply to the office

30

Age of Mukti Khatun, a housewife in Pabna who was burnt alive in front of her in-laws's house for dowry

67

Number of seats won (out of 70) by anti-corruption campaigner Arvind Kejriwal's Aam Aadmi (common man) party in Delhi state polls