Stay away from our internal affairs

AL MP Selim asks foreign diplomats

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Ruling Awami League lawmaker Sheikh Fazlul Karim Selim yesterday asked foreign diplomats in Dhaka not to meddle in Bangladesh's internal affairs and follow the diplomatic norms strictly.

"Don't poke your nose in the internal matters.... We understand the welfare of the country very well," he said in parliament, adding that the interference of the foreigners would not be tolerated. The AL leader criticised the diplomats for meeting BNP chief Khaleda Zia, saying she was neither in government nor in opposition, and came down heavily on Khaleda for not visiting the Shaheed Minar on February 21 to pay homage to the language martyrs.

Turning to the call for political talks, he alleged that the civil society was encouraging terrorism in the name of dialogue.

selling science fiction in 2006, and its demand has been increasing ever since." The writer too feels that sci-fi books are becoming popular because it is the era of science. President of Bangladesh Science Fiction Society, Mostaq began writing in this field because of his own science background. "The scope of imagination is greater in this genre and you can think a lot about the future," he said. The society was created in December last year, aiming to make science popular among people and this year it launched

10 sci-fi books by 10 writers at the fair. "From next year we will try to bring at least one book by a new sci-fi writer to the fair or get a collection of works in this field published from our society," Ahmed said. The society has also planned to bring out a science fiction magazine from April this year, he added. For this year's fair Ahmed wrote "Gito" published by Nalonda, "Project Hyper" by Anya Prokash and his "Ribit" series is available at Anindya Prokash. Till date 28 science fiction books by different writers of the country have arrived at the fair.

However, translations of classics of this genre by writers such as Issac Asimov, HG Wells can also be found in the fair especially at Seba Prokashani and Sandesh.

Science fiction was made popular in this country by noted academician Muhammad Zafar Iqbal, though according to him, it was his brother Humayun Ahmed who first presented this genre to Bangladeshi readers.

Yesterday 99 new books arrived at the fair and 11 new ones were launched.

POWERS OF EXECUTIVE MAGISTRATES

HC seeks views of 5 amici curiae

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday appointed five senior lawyers as amici curiae (friends of court) for their expert opinions on a long-pending rule over legality of giving judicial power to executive magistrates. The amici curiae -- Dr Kamal Hossain, Mahmudul Islam,

M Amir-Ul Islam, Rokanuddin Mahmud, and Ajmalul Hossain -- have been requested to place arguments on April 8, said Deputy Attorney General Motaher Hossain Saju who represented the government. The HC on November 15, 2009, issued a rule upon the government to explain why the amended rules of the Code of Criminal Procedure (CrPC) empowering executive magistrates to perform judicial functions should not be declared illegal.

The HC came up with the rule following a writ petition filed by Manzill Murshid, on behalf of Human Rights and Peace for Bangladesh, seeking directives to cancel the amended rules.
