JARED LETO

gaining weight for Joker role

Oscar-winner Jared Leto, who will play Joker in "Suicide Squad", says he has been trying to gain weight for the role in the super villain movie. The 43-year-old opened up about his preparations for the role in an interview with the Billboard magazine, reports aceshowbiz.com. "Do you mind if I eat a little? I'm trying to gain a lot of weight. It means I have to eat every couple of hours - and I'm terrible at eating a lot," he said. Leto further shared why he chose to play the Joker. "The opportunity to take on this nearly Shakespearean character - that's what graphic novels and comic books are becoming, right? (He's) this beautiful disaster of a character - what a big challenge," he said. "Suicide Squad" also stars Will Smith, Margot Robbie, Jai Courtney and Cara Delevingne. Directed by David Ayer, the film is expected to be released on Aug 5, 2016.

GINA CARANO

joins the Deadpool movie

ANGEL DUST

Femme Fatale Gina Carano will be playing the character of Christine a.k.a. Angel Dust, a mutant capable of unleashing adrenaline into her system (rendering her nearly superhuman for periods of time). The character owes her origins to Geoff Johns, and was first introduced as a member of the Morlocks, an underground mutant cell created by prolific "X-Men" writer Chris Claremont. How her character will fit into the film isn't clear, but the Morlocks' ties to the X-Men universe are to be expected. As a mutant who owes his mutation to the same Weapon X program that gave Wolverine his adamantium skeleton, Fox made it quite clear that the big screen Deadpool would be a part of the X-Men universe. That will likely bring him into contact with plenty of mutant enemies (with the actor playing the film's villain potentially revealed), with Carano looking to be one such rival. Deadpool releases in theaters February 12, 2016.

JASON MOMOA

as Aquaman in Man of Steel 2

The most anticipated superhero movie of recent times 'Batman Vs Superman' is around the corner. And people are eagerly awaiting the first look and glimpses of what they should expect. Zack Snyder released the first look of Aquaman, one of the founders of Justice League of America, on his Twitter page recently. The superhero from the seas has been given a smart black and gold costume, (in contrast to the orange and green costume that he dons in the comic books) and boy does it look stunning! Earlier Snyder had posted pictures he took with his camera of Batman and the new Batmobile which also garnered a lot of praise.
