WAR CRIMES IN HABIGANJ ICT grants quizzing of suspect brothers

Asks for investigation, treatment order compliance reports

Two Habiganj brothers suspected of committing war crimes during the 1971 Liberation War can be interrogated by the International Crimes Tribunals' investigation agency in its Dhanmondi "Safe House" on March 16 for six hours from 10:00am.

On April 16, the prosecution has to submit an investigation report, if any, to International Crimes Tribunal-2 while the jail authorities a report on compliance with the tribunal's order to provide treatment to the suspects.

Arrested on February 10, Mahibur Rahman Boromian, 70, former chairman of Baniachang upazila's Khagaura union parishad; and Majibur Rahman Angur Mian, 65, the incumbent chairman, have been kept in a jail.

The brothers allegedly formed the Razakar Bahini, the Pakistani occupation army's auxiliary force, in their area and used to hand over freedom fighters to the army.

The two-member tribunal led by Justice Md Mozibur Rahman Miah with Justice Md Shahinur Islam granted the permission and passed the orders yesterday hearing three petitions, two of the prosecution and one of the defence.

Titas pipeline leaking gas for 4 days under Turag

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Savar

The pipeline of Titas Gas Transmission and Distribution Company Ltd which has been leaking gas under the river Turag since Sunday is yet to be fixed.

Shirazul Islam, manager of the gas supplying company's Savar office, said a trawler on Sunday hit the pipeline under the river in Savar.

The line supplies gas to about 30,000 households in Bank Town, Rajfulbaria and Kamapara of Savar, he said, adding that the leakage has led to a gas crisis in those areas.

Shirazul said experts are working nonstop to repair the pipeline but the task is rather difficult as the line is under water. He hoped that the leakage would be repaired by today.
