

Akshay Kumar & Shilpa Shetty

join hands for new venture

When 'Dhadkan' was released, the movie became a blockbuster because of the apparent chemistry between the then alleged couple Akshay Kumar and Shilpa Shetty who had set the silver screen ablaze. And now after almost 15 years, the hit on-screen pair have come together to launch their new venture in the home shopping industry, reports suggest. Shilpa's husband Raj Kundra has entered into a partnership with Akshay for a 24/7 celebrity-driven home shopping channel. It has also been learnt that Akshay and Shilpa have posed for a photoshoot together for the launch. While Akshay married Twinkle Khanna in 2001 (just a year after 'Dhadkan' release), Shilpa married Raj in 2009.

DEADPOOL

Movie Casts Morena Baccarin as Female Lead

One thing is for sure about actress Morena Baccarin (Firefly, Homeland): she certainly has a knack for comic book adaptations. With roles in both Gotham and The Flash this season, the only thing missing from the actress's portfolio was a leading role in a superhero film – potentially even boasting some superhuman abilities herself. Though such a turn doesn't seem in the cards just yet, word has broken that Baccarin has landed the female lead opposite Ryan Reynolds in Deadpool. There is little known about the part in question – other than it putting her opposite Wade Wilson a.k.a. Deadpool a.k.a. the Merc with a Mouth – but if the previous script rumors prove true, the part looks to cast the actress in a genuinely new light. Deadpool hits theaters February 12, 2016.

Chuck Lorre Remembers Leonard Nimoy In 'Big Bang Theory'

Leonard Nimoy, who died last week, made a voice-over appearance on CBS' The Big Bang Theory three years ago this week. That night, Penny (Kaley Cuoco) bought Sheldon (Jim Parsons) and Leonard (Johnny Galecki) a pair of Star Trek keepsake collectibles. Sheldon, of course, breaks his while playing with it and clandestinely tries to switch his toy with Leonard's. Then Sheldon's conscience — Nimoy's voice — starts to get to nag at him. Tonight, series creator Chuck Lorre used his familiar vanity card to pay tribute to the original Spock at the end of the episode, saying, "The impact you had on our show and on our lives is everlasting."
