

CELEBRATING 24 YEARS OF JOURNALISM

The Daily Star celebrated its 24th founding anniversary on Friday night promising to continue with impartial journalism to build a prosperous Bangladesh. The leading English daily hosted a reception in the capital's Bangabandhu International Conference Centre sharing the joy of its success with readers, patrons and well-wishers. Politicians, academics, diplomats, businesspersons, journalists, art luminaries, celebrities and civil society members attended the programme. Musical performances mesmerised the audience. The Daily Star also honoured a group of young achievers for their contribution in their respective fields. It was an evening of eminent citizens, academics, diplomats, businesspersons, readers, journalists, newspaper hawkers and The Daily Star employees getting together.
