Two to die, four get life for killing 2 housewives

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Mymensingh

A Mymensingh court yesterday sentenced a man to death and four others to life imprisonment for killing a housewife in Muktagachha upazila in 2000.

The death penalty awardee is Abu Bakar Siddique, 55, son of Suruj Ali of Mohishtara village in the upazila.

The lifers are Siddique's mother Jomirun, 75, Yunus Ali, 65, Hashem Ali, 60, and Idris Ali, 45. The court also fined the lifers Tk 5,000 each, in default they are to suffer six months more in jail, court sources said.

According to the prosecution, Abu Bakar Siddique and his mother Jomirun with the help of other convicts strangled Siddique's wife Jyotsna Ara Begum on February 18, 2000 over a family feud.

Victim's brother Joynal Abedin lodged a case with Muktagachha Police Station on the day.

After investigation, police submitted a charge sheet against Siddique and four others.

After examining the record and witnesses, Sharmin Nigar, judge of the First Additional Sessions Judge's Court pronounced the verdict, court sources said.

According to a Netrakona correspondent, a court, here yesterday sentenced a man to death for killing his wife for dowry in Kendua upazila in 2009.

The death penalty awardee is Rubel Miah, 30, son of Sharful Zaman of Shalpa Maizhati village in the upazila.

Rubel picked up a quarrel with her wife Fatema Khatun, 22, over dowry at around 7:30pm on the day. At one stage, he hit her with a sharp weapon, leaving her dead on the spot.

Shafiqul Islam, brother of Fatema, filed a case with Kendua Police Station the following day, accusing Rubel. Police pressed charges against Rubel on September 29, 2009.

After examining 12 prosecution witnesses and case record, Additional District and Sessions Judge Md Abdul Hamid delivered the verdict.

Fire, gas cylinder blast claim four lives

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Noakhali

Two shopkeepers were burnt alive when a fire broke out at two tea stalls in front of Ramganj Upazila Parishad office in Laxmipur district early yesterday.

The deceased are Chowdhury Mia, 35, son of Abdul Haque of Darbeshpur village in the upazila, and Abdus Salam, 14, son of Swapan Mia of Shariatpur district.

Police quoted locals as saying that the fire broke out at one of the two tea stalls around 3:00am and soon engulfed the other.

Chowdhury and Salam, employees of the two shops, were burnt alive as they were asleep inside the shops.

On information, a fire fighting unit from Ramganj upazila headquarters rushed to the spot and doused the blaze, said Lokman Hossain, officer in-charge of Ramganj Police Station.

Ramganj Upazila Nirbahi Officer (UNO) Kazi Mahbubul Alam and AKM Ruhul Amin, chairman of Ramganj Upazila Parishad, visited the spot.

The UNO said the fire might have originated from the oven or an electric short-circuit at one of the two tea shops.

Away in Gopalganj, a balloon seller and his assistant were killed when a gas cylinder exploded in Orakandi area in Kashiani upazila yesterday, reports UNB.

The identity of the deceased could not be known.

Rathindranath Tarafdar, sub-inspector of Ramdia Police Camp under Kashiani upazila, said a gas cylinder exploded suddenly, killing the balloon seller and injuring his assistant around 7:30am while they were filling balloons with gas.

The injured later died on way to Kashiani Upazila Health Complex.

Sramik Karmachari Oikya Parishad forms a human chain in Khulna city yesterday, demanding compensation for the families of the victims of Mongla warehouse collapse.

STAR COUNTRY DESK

Two housewives were murdered allegedly by their husbands for dowry in Habiganj and Jessore districts on Tuesday.

A woman was burnt alive as husband allegedly set her on fire following an altercation over dowry at Teliapara village in Madhabpur upazila of Habiganj on Tuesday night.

The deceased is Jinnat Akhter, 19, wife of Ripon Miah of the village, and daughter of Jafar Ali of Muradnagar village in the upazila.

Police arrested Jamila Khatun, 45, mother-in-law of the victim, in connection with the killing, reports our Moulvibazar correspondent.

Family sources said Ripon, 26, son of Abdur

Nur, often tortured Jinnat for Tk 10,000 as dowry.

When Jinnat brought Tk 5,000 from her father at around 8:00pm on Tuesday, Ripon locked in an altercation with her over the issue. At one stage, he set her on fire, pouring kerosene on her body.

Hearing screams, neighbours rushed to the spot, rescued Jinnat and sent her to the upazila health complex where she died at around 9:00pm.

Mollah Monir Miah, officer in-charge (OC) of Madhabpur Police Station, said Ripon went into hiding soon after the incident. Police are raiding different areas to arrest the culprit, the OC added.

Away in Jessore, a housewife was killed allegedly by her husband for dowry at Boalia village under Monirampur upazila on Tuesday, reports our Benapole correspondent.

The dead is Halima Khatun, 25, wife of Akibul Islam of the village, and daughter of Safiar Rahman of Brambondanga village in the upazila, said police.

Family sources said Akibul married Halima two years ago. After their marriage, Akibul often tortured Halima for dowry.

On Tuesday night, Akibul strangled Halima following an altercation over the issue.

The body was sent to Jessore Medical College Hospital morgue for autopsy, said OC Mollah Khabir Ahmed of Monirampur Police Station.

A case was filed in this connection, he said.
