

FARIDI'S LAST FILM

Humayun Faridi was one of the best actors to grace the silver screen. His untimely death was a great blow to the industry at large. Everybody knows that the last film that the late Humayun Faridi was seen acting in was Ek Cup Chaa, which was released quite recently. However, it seems that may not be the case as news just broke that another cinema in which Faridi acted will probably be released this April. The film is called "Ek Jobaner Jomidar", made back in 2009. However, the film wasn't released up till now as the producer of the film died before the film was slated to be launched. Now though, Uttom Akash, the director of the film is taking the initiative to launch that cinema after such a long time. This means that this film is truly the last film to be released with the late Faridi in the cast
