

SHIMLA

The Item Girl

We have all seen the beautiful Shimla in various different mainstream movies so far but we may now see her in a new way entirely. The popular actress has apparently just finished working for an item song for an upcoming film called Naion, directed by Rashid Palash. Interestingly though, this isn't technically the first time she filmed for an item song. She had filmed for an item song before but the film was never completed. So this will be the first time we'll get to see the popular actress in an item song.

HEROINE WANTED

AYANABAJI

Fans of Amitabh Reza rejoice as his first film directorial debut Ayanabaji was announced on March 29. Producers of the film include Ziauddin Adil and Gausul Alam Shaon. Casting for the film is almost complete, which includes Chanchal Chowdhury, Lutfur Rahman George, Hira

Chowdhury, Shawkat Osman, Gausul Alam Shaon and others. The heroine for the movie however has still not been decided and Amitabh is currently on the lookout; be it fresh or established. Shooting is slated to begin on May 15th, so don't now's the chance to try out for the new movie.

AMRITA'S

Second Coming

Amrita Khan is one of the newer faces of Bengali cinema. Her debut film, "Game" didn't manage to become quite the hit many were expecting it to be, but with latest upcoming film, "Gunda: The Terrorist", its hoped that she will finally have the introduction she deserves in the industry and the audience. The director for this new film is Ispahani Arif Jahan and the film will be released on April 10th, alongside "Chuye Dile Mon".
