

BOISHAKH BEAUTY

Beautiful this Boishakh!

THE days of Boishakh are long and languid, interspersed with thunderstorms and cold showers that refresh the mind, body and soul. Romance associated with the onset of the Bengali New Year is legendary, as it is the harbinger of new beginnings while putting behind the old. And the celebrations surrounding this day are carried out with much gusto and enthusiasm. As desirable and exciting as it is, things can get a little stressful in the beauty department. The unbearable heat and humidity makes wearing makeup and keeping it in place incredibly hard, and the unexpected showers don't contribute to the mix at all. Moreover, daylong celebrations make patchy foundation, smudged kohl and bleeding lipstick inevitable. However, this year Star Lifestyle has put together a concise guide that will address all the aforementioned issues, as well as the latest trends you can sport this Boishakh!
