

Tania Hosaain is a household name when it comes to playing characters of depth and power, on television. Also a model and popular anchor, Tania is an enthusiastic listener of music and a voracious reader. She takes out some time to speak about her likes and dislikes with the Star Weekend.

What are the three things you would take with you to a deserted island?

My iPad, my music and books by Rabindranath Tagore.

If you were given a chance to play a role in an old film, which role and which film would they be?

The title character of Sabrina played by Audrey Hepburn.

What is your favourite midnight snack?

Chocolate.

Which director or directors would you like to work with in the future?

I had always wanted to work with Rituparna Ghosh. May he rest in peace. I would now like to work with Masud Hasan Ujjal, Animesh Aich and Amitabh Reza.

What is your favourite form of exercise?

I hate exercise, but for the sake of theatre, I have to do yoga on a regular basis.

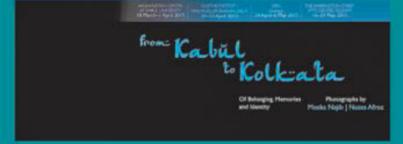

What is the message you would like to give to all the young women trying to enter your profession?

Be honest to your profession. You will never be disappointed.
