How not to accessorise your car

Style is subjective to location, money and passing of puberty. Cars are an expression of style and individuality. And to express the individuality in more unique ways, we accessorise. Like fashion, you can pick a classic 501 straight jeans from Levi's or you could experiment and get yourself the parachute pajamas worn by three M C Hammers at the same time. Both get attention but is it what you want? Here's a list of car fads that are still providing vacation money for owners of car decoration shops at Bangla Motor.
