

SABILA NUR has made a place for herself in the hearts of many, thanks to her bubbly personality and vivacious roles on television, in Bangladesh. Very recently, the telefilm 'Monkey Business' which was telecast on Valentine's Day this year, showcased Sabila's talents, her spontaneity and fabulous expressions. To add to it all, she is now trying to balance a life as a full time student of BBA and the acting offers that are piling up at her doorstep. Sabila takes a minute to inform her fans and well wishers through the Star Weekend, of her likes and dislikes.

What are the three things you would take with you to a deserted island?

A good book, endless supply of coffee and a music player.

If you were given a chance to play a role in an old film, which role and which film would they be?

I would choose the role of Scout in 'To Kill a Mockingbird.'

What is your favourite midnight snack?

Cereal

Which director or directors would you like to work with in the future?

Amitabh Reza and Animesh Aich.

What is your favourite form of exercise?

Dance.

What is the message you would like to give to all the young people trying to enter your profession?

Be dedicated and punctual and the rest will come your way.
