PEOPLE I'LL NEVER FORGET BY LTN

Trance may be a relatively new genre, but its fan following shows that this new flavour of music isn't going to disappear anytime soon. During this short time, many artists have managed to carve out quite a nice fandom in the industry. Names such as Armin Van Buuren, Dash Berlin, Tiesto, ATB and others are the known giants of the current trance genre. Well a new artist is now hoping to join this elite rank with his debut album.
