

Sust student held for sexually harassing peer

UNB, Sylhet

A student of Shahjalal University of Science and Technology (Sust) was arrested yesterday on the charge of sexually harassing a female student.

Police said they arrested Rifat Adnan Papan, a student of BBA, on the campus following a request of the university authorities.

On Monday, the female student submitted a written complaint to its acting proctor against Papan for sexually harassing her. But Papan said he just threw a sandal at her as she made some "offensive" comments against his mother.

Meanwhile, the teachers and students of Sust yesterday blamed the government's indifference and negligence for the alarming rise in rape and sexual harassment incidents in the country, reports our Moulvibazar correspondent.

At a human chain, organised on the campus by the political studies department, they demanded immediate arrest of the miscreants who on Thursday gang-raped a Garo woman in a moving microbus in the capital. They also demanded punishment for Papan.

This newly constructed footpath beside the level crossing in the capital's Malibagh completely occupied by rickshaw-vans forcing pedestrians to walk on the road as the authorities concerned are nonchalant. The photo was taken on Monday.

MOJAHEED'S APPEAL AGAINST DEATH SENTENCE

He is liable for killing of journalist Serajuddin

Attorney general tells Supreme Court

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Jamaat-e-Islami leader Ali Ahsan Mohammad Mojaheed was responsible for the killing of intellectuals including noted journalist Serajuddin Hossain in 1971, Attorney General Mahbubey Alam told the Supreme Court yesterday.

Mojaheed was leader of the anti-independence Al Badr force and Islami Chhatra Sangha, then student wing of Jamaat, and his speeches had incited the collaborators to commit crimes against humanity during the Liberation War, he said.

The attorney general was placing arguments before the apex court during the eighth day's hearing on Mojaheed's appeal against the death sentence he was given by the International Crimes Tribunal-2 for crimes against humanity in 1971.

Arguing on another charge, he said Ranjit Nath, a civilian, was confined and tortured in Faridpur in 1971 at the direction of Mojaheed, and the five-year prison sentence the Jamaat leader was given for this was lenient. Ranjit survived death.

The attorney general is expected to Compensate Gazipur worker with Tk 1 lakh

HC directs Prothom Alo

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday directed the Prothom Alo to give Tk 1 lakh as compensation to a female worker of Apex Footwear Limited in Gazipur within a month for damaging her dignity by misreporting of information about her abortion.

The court observed that the newspaper authorities have to give the money to Hamida Akter as compensation as her dignity was damaged due to the report published on May 10, Deputy Attorney General Tapas Kumar Biswas told The Daily Star.

An HC bench of Justice Qazi Reza-Ul Hoque and Justice Abu Taher Md Saifur Rahman passed the order with disposing of a suomoto rule issued by it on May 10 following the report.

The Prothom Alo report said Hamida who was pregnant suddenly became sick at the factory on May 9 and sought leave from her supervisor but he did not grant it. The report also said when her condition deteriorated, she went to a toilet and became senseless and "gave birth to a child there". She "along with the baby" was taken to Safipur Modern Hospital and "the baby was declared dead," said the report.

On May 11 the daily published another report

Minhaj lured the playgroup student with a chocolate and raped her in a bathroom. Police arrested him after the father filed a case.

The verdict came when protesters and right activists are blaming the culture of impunity for the recurrence of sexual harassments, including sexual assault on women during Pahela Baishakh on Dhaka University campus and rape of a Garo woman on Thursday.

Journalists of JU said the attack was tied to an incident that occurred earlier in the day -- some correspon-

JU BCL President Mahmudur Rahman Jony said they would take action if any activist of the organisation was involved in the bidding process. Neither Rahim nor Rana was available for comments.
