The festival of Eid will be in monsoon this year. And monsoon in our country is marked by very hot weather on one extreme and downpour on the other. Rang, a renowned fashion house in Bangladesh, has opted for cotton as the fabric of this season.

Indeed, you will also find clothes with some other fabrics too, but cotton is predominant. A lot of bright colours have been used. Screen print, hand embroidery, block, spray, machine embroidery and many other methods have been used to bring out the designs.

'Modhuboni art' is the theme of Rang's Eid collection this year.

Other than attires there are many accessories and lifestyle products. You can also get hold of gift vouchers worth Tk.500-Tk.5000. All these are available at all the showrooms of Rang. You can also buy online. Visit their website, www.rang-bd.com and call 01819257768 for home delivery.

EID WARDROBE FOR THE ELDERLY

It is that time of the year again when all the fashion houses pull up their sleeves and get ready for Eid, offering attires and accessories of various sorts and colours. Eid is indeed a colourful and vibrant event, with the attires reflecting that. However, the elderly people in our family often seek out more toned down and sophisticated clothes. For this, Shroddha, a concern of since it's Eid, there has been an intelligent mix with brighter colours as well. The theme of the designs are borrowed from 'modhuboni art'.

Not just clothes, there are different sorts of accessories and other products, such as caps, prayer mats, prayer beads, bed sheets, music CDs, etc.

WESTRANG'S WARDROBE FOR EID

Fashion is ever-changing. New and modern innovations and twists and turns are always showing up. Rang keeps up with the trends with Westrang, which is one of its brands. With the upcoming Eid, Westrang has brought in a fresh new line.

Be it the colours, patterns, designs or the fabrics, Westrang has been innovative, and the attires are sure to be loved by the youth. The choice of fabrics includes printed georgette, velvet, cotton, crepe cotton, etc. Check out their panjabis, slim fit shirts, kotis, kameezes, shirts, Denim jeans pants, etc. There are attires for men, women and children. There are accessories such as sunglasses, belts, perfumes, wallets, etc.

Westrang has outlets in Banani 11 and in Jamuna Future Park; along with one in Narayanganj. You will also find its products in all the showrooms of Rang.
