

Bananas in Pyjamas

How would you feel if bananas wearing pyjamas entered your room and declared you their slave? Would you submit willingly, in awe of their absolute power? Or would you simply drive a knife into the slippery depths of the bananas to save yourself? In fact, you don't know that until you have talked to the bananas but what if the bananas can't talk? Sentient bananas are serious business and may help science in ways no one could've imagined ever before. But the question remains, is being violated by a man-sized, sentient banana for science worth it? So many questions, so few answers...

THIS WEEK'S HORRORSCOPE

- ARIES
 In Roman schools, there were a lot of boy-girl parties. Yes, THOSE ones.
- TAURUS
 Pretend your sister is correct for a day to drive her mad. Flawless victory.
- GEMINI
 Fry a beaver tail and pretend it is a waffle. Because you're a redneck.
- CANCER
 "What do it do?" is not an oft-asked question because the sentence is incorrect.
- LEO
 What makes a good day? Submersible vehicles, Brownian motion and mathematics.
- VIRGO
 Begging for seaweed is unbecoming of you. Go back to school and get a protractor.
- LIBRA
 An enemy is what a can of soap is to a bar of soap. The two can't coexist.
- SCORPIO
 So you say you want to become a writer? THIS IS WHAT I DO FOR A LIVING! *hiss*
- SAGITTARIUS
 Well-dressed pigeons will be the death of you. It will receive 12,568 YouTube views.
- CAPRICORN
 Crawfish are an excellent way to torture school kids, says Lenny the Loan Shark.
- AQUARIUS
 Getting thrown into the ring gets you into shape. (Do you get it? This is brilliant!)
- PISCES
 I trust people as far as I can spit them. Which isn't very far, yet. I'm trying, okay?!

MX PLAYER

FAHAD BIN AMAN

Platform: Android & Windows
 Do you have that one music video that you received from a friend's cellphone through ShareIt but can't play it in your phone? Or do you have that one movie that you couldn't finish on your PC and decided to watch later in your phone but your phone's built in player can't play it? Worry not, MX Player is your knight to the rescue. It's a video player with a built-in audio player as well, but playing almost all available video formats without lagging is its forte. It provides multi core decoding to increase performance during playback. You can find it in Google Play Store, and the Windows App Store. You just need to install it and after that the app will show you all the folders which contain video files in your phone. It's one of the simplest yet effective video players on the market. The Windows version still needs lots of improvement but in terms of Android this is one of the best, if not the best. There is also an ad-free, paid version called MX Player Pro. Give it a try, NOW.
